Day 1: Where does the story take place? What is significant about this setting?

Day 2: As you read fantasy, the author may give you clues about what's going on before the character knows. What inferences have you made that you think will happen later in the book?

Day 3: What are some of the problems the main character is facing in the text?

Day 4: Themes or Symbols – What is a possible theme or symbol of the text? Support your answer with reasons.

Day 5: Make a text-to-self connection as you read tonight. Include evidence from the text to support this connection.
