VOCATION SEEDS

The Gospel asks for us: “How can Jesus give us His flesh to eat?” Our lack of knowledge does not prevent us from being lured into the mystery. The mystery makes it all the more appealing when we say in faith, “My Lord and my God!” In faith we can respond also to God’s invitation to be His priest or religious. If you can, call Fr. Hansoo Park, Vocations Director, 416-968-0997.

Pure Exposure is at once a fashion show as well as a celebration of the gift of each individual life. We recognize that each person brings with them a world of talents and that by their mere existence they add infinite value to the fabric of our society. True fashion, therefore, as an individual choice should by its very nature adorn the body in accordance to its worth, but also, by necessity, it must testify to the inestimable value and beauty of the human person.

COMMUNION BELL

At Mass, the server rings the bell once as the priest uncovers the chalice to receive the Precious Blood. The faithful who are receiving Holy Communion come forward to the communion rail at this point, so that the priest does not have to wait for them to arrive before distributing Holy Communion.

“I LOVE BECAUSE I LOVE, I LOVE THAT I MAY LOVE”

From a sermon by St. Bernard, abbot, f.d. August 20

Love is sufficient of itself, it gives pleasure by itself and because of itself. It is its own merit, its own reward. Love looks for no cause outside itself, no effect beyond itself. Its profit lies in its practice. I love because I love, I love that I may love. Love is a great thing so long as it continually returns to its fountainhead, flows back to its source, always drawing from there the water which constantly replenishes it. Of all the movements, sensations and feelings of the soul, love is the only one in which the creature can respond to the Creator and make some sort of similar return however unequal though it be. For when God loves, all he desires is to be loved in return; the sole purpose of his love is to be loved, in the knowledge that those who love him are made happy by their love of him.

ST. JOHN EUDES, PRIEST,

F.D. AUGUST 19

He was born and died in Normandy. He was ordained priest and spent many years preaching parish missions. He organized a congregation of nuns that grew into the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity, dedicated to the care of women rescued from a disorderly life, and a congregation of priests dedicated to the running of seminaries. He was active in encouraging devotion to the Sacred Heart, and to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

In his time the Church in France was corrupt and in many ways a source of evil rather than grace. The higher clergy were rich and privileged, and enjoyed and guarded their privileges (the country was run, and wars were waged, by a cardinal). The lower clergy were ignorant and the common people were poor, superstitious, and oppressed as much spiritually as materially. To this mix was added the poison of Jansenism, which taught that human nature was corrupt, original sin rampant, and perfection was both necessary for salvation and practically unattainable. In such circumstances, setting up seminaries to ensure the proper education of priests becomes itself a revolutionary act, and the encouragement of devotion to the Sacred Heart becomes not a sweet pious platitude but a defiant proclamation that the centre of God's essence is his love, not condemnation.
