

METROPOLITAN NASHVILLE EVENT MARKETING FUND • FY 15-16

Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund

The purpose of the Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund is to provide revenue in order to create signature events and stimulate visitor spending in Nashville/Davidson County. The fund is sourced through a $0.50 per room night charge on hotel rooms in Davidson County.

Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund Committee

The Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund Committee is tasked with reviewing applications for the fund and making recommendations to the Nashville Mayor's office for fund allocations. Final approval of allocations for the fund is the decision of the Nashville Mayor's office and the Metro Director of Finance. The Metropolitan Nashville Event Marketing Fund Committee includes:

Irwin Fisher, chair

Kevin Lavender

Ex-officio:

Dan Piotrowski

Colin Reed

Rich Riebeling

Mike Kelly

Sandra Fulton

Butch Spyridon

Ben Goldberg

The fund is administered by the Nashville Convention & Visitors Corp. All meetings are public, adhere to the Metro Nashville public meeting laws and are held at the Nashville Convention & Visitors Corp Board Room. Three percent of the total Fund annual collections is dedicated to a Research and Development allocation for support of opportunities that adhere to the guidelines but occur outside of the application timeline.
