D POST-EMPLOYMENT CONTRIBUTIONS

If your church or organization wishes to continue ELCA benefits for this individual beyond the last date of employment, this would not be considered an extension of sponsorship. Therefore, you cannot extend coverage for disability or survivor benefits. This arrangement would be between you and your pastor or rostered layperson and the billing for benefits beyond the last date of paid ELCA service would be as follows:

- The member will be billed for health and lump-sum survivor benefits.
- The employer will be billed for any additional retirement contributions.

To make contributions for this member beyond the termination date, complete steps 1 and 2 below.

1. We will continue to pay contributions to this individual's ELCA Retirement Plan account in the amount of $ _____ and will submit the contribution (check [✓] one) Monthly In a lump sum

2. We will stop making contributions to this individual's Retirement Plan account effective the date of a new call. (check [✓] one) Yes No
