Any information given a prospective offeror concerning a solicitation will be furnished promptly to all other prospective offerors as an Amendment to the solicitation, if that information is necessary for submitting offers or if the lack of it would be prejudicial to other prospective offerors. (b) The State seeks to permit maximum practicable competition. Offerors are urged to advise the Procurement Officer -- as soon as possible -- regarding any aspect of this procurement, including any aspect of the Solicitation, that unnecessarily or inappropriately limits full and open competition. [02-2A095-1]

REJECTION/CANCELLATION (JAN 2004)

The State may cancel this solicitation in whole or in part. The State may reject any or all proposals in whole or in part. [SC Code Section 11-35-1710 & R.19-445.2065] [02-2A100-1]

RESPONSIVENESS/IMPROPER OFFERS (JAN 2004)

(a) Bid as Specified. Offers for supplies or services other than those specified will not be considered unless authorized by the Solicitation.

(b) Multiple Offers. Offerors may submit more than one Offer, provided that each Offer has significant differences other than price. Each separate Offer must satisfy all Solicitation requirements. If this solicitation is an Invitation for Bids, each separate offer must be submitted as a separate document. If this solicitation is a Request for Proposals, multiple offers may be submitted as one document, provided that you clearly differentiate between each offer and you submit a separate cost proposal for each offer, if applicable.

(c) Responsiveness. Any Offer which fails to conform to the material requirements of the Solicitation may be rejected as nonresponsive. Offers which impose conditions that modify material requirements of the Solicitation may be rejected. If a fixed price is required, an Offer will be rejected if the total possible cost to the State cannot be determined. Offerors will not be given an opportunity to correct any material nonconformity. Any deficiency resulting from a minor informality may be cured or waived at the sole discretion of the Procurement Officer. [R.19-445.2070 and Section 11-35-1520(13)]

(d) Price Reasonableness: Any offer may be rejected if the Procurement Officer determines in writing that it is unreasonable as to price. [R. 19-445.2070].

(e) Unbalanced Bidding. The State may reject an Offer as nonresponsive if the prices bid are materially unbalanced between line items or subline items. A bid is materially unbalanced when it is based on prices significantly less than cost for some work and prices which are significantly overstated in relation to cost for other work, and if there is a reasonable doubt that the bid will result in the lowest overall cost to the State even though it may be the low evaluated bid, or if it is so unbalanced as to be tantamount to allowing an advance payment.

This restriction may be lifted by express written permission from the Procurement Officer. This restriction expires once a contract has been formed. #### SUBMITTING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION (AUG 2002)

(An overview is available at www.procurement.sc.gov) For every document Offeror submits in response to or with regard to this solicitation or request, Offeror must separately mark with the word "CONFIDENTIAL" every page, or portion thereof, that Offeror contends contains information that is exempt from public disclosure because it is either (a) a trade secret as defined in Section 30-4-40(a)(1), or (b) privileged and confidential, as that phrase is used in Section 11-35-410. For every document Offeror submits in response to or with regard to this solicitation or request, Offeror must separately mark with the words "TRADE SECRET" every page, or portion thereof, that Offeror contends contains a trade secret as that term is defined by Section 39-8-20 of the Trade Secrets Act. For every document Offeror submits in response to or with regard to this solicitation or request, Offeror must separately mark with the word "PROTECTED" every page, or portion thereof, that Offeror contends is protected by Section 11-35-1810. All markings must be conspicuous; use color, bold, underlining, or some other method in order to conspicuously distinguish the mark from the other text. Do not mark your entire response (bid, proposal, quote, etc.) as confidential, trade secret, or protected. If your response, or any part thereof, is improperly marked as confidential or trade secret or protected, the State may, in its sole discretion, determine it nonresponsive. If only portions of a page are subject to some protection, do not mark the entire page. By submitting a response to this solicitation or request, Offeror (1) agrees to the public disclosure of every page of every document regarding this solicitation or request that was submitted at any time prior to entering into a contract (including, but not limited to, documents contained in a response, documents submitted to clarify a response, and documents submitted during negotiations), unless the page is conspicuously marked "TRADE SECRET" or "CONFIDENTIAL" or "PROTECTED", (2) agrees that any information not marked, as required by these bidding instructions, as a "Trade Secret" is not a trade secret as defined by the Trade Secrets Act, and (3) agrees that, notwithstanding any claims or markings otherwise, any prices, commissions, discounts, or other financial figures used to determine the award, as well as the final contract amount, are subject to public disclosure. In determining whether to release documents, the State will detrimentally rely on Offeror's marking of documents, as required by these bidding instructions, as being either "Confidential" or "Trade Secret" or "PROTECTED". By submitting a response, Offeror agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the State of South Carolina, its officers and employees, from every claim, demand, loss, expense, cost, damage or injury, including attorney's fees, arising out of or resulting from the State withholding information that Offeror marked as "confidential" or "trade secret" or "PROTECTED". ### CODE OF ETHICS FOR INTERPRETERS AND TRANSLATORS

Proficiency

I have met the minimum proficiency standards set by the agency in the languages for which I am being asked to interpret as demonstrated by passing the required examinations and receiving satisfactory training evaluations.

Confidentiality

I will treat all information learned during the interpretation as confidential, not divulging any information obtained through my assignments, including but not limited to information gained through interviews or access to documents and other written materials.

The expectation that the interpreter will keep information confidential does not apply when disclosure is authorized by law or is necessary to prevent serious, foreseeable, and imminent harm to a client or other identifiable person. In such instances, interpreters should disclose the least amount of confidential information necessary to achieve the desired purpose. Remember: If you are a mandated reporter of abuse or neglect, then you must report.

Accuracy: Conveying the Content and Spirit of What Is Said

I shall transmit the message in a thorough and faithful manner, giving consideration to linguistic variations in both languages and conveying the tone and spirit of the original message. A word-for-word interpretation may not convey the intended idea. I must determine the relevant concept and say it in language that is readily understandable and culturally appropriate to the listener. In addition, I will make every effort to assure that the client has understood questions, instructions and other information transmitted by the service provider.

Completeness: Conveying Everything That Is Said

I shall interpret everything that is said by all people in the interaction, without omitting, adding, condensing or changing anything. If the content to be interpreted might be perceived because of cultural differences, as offensive, insensitive or otherwise harmful to the dignity and well-being of the customer, I will advise the Agency provider of this before interpreting.

Conveying Cultural Frameworks

I shall explain cultural differences or practices to the provider(s) and clients when appropriate. I shall practice cultural competence and sensitivity.

Non-Judgmental Attitude about the Content to Be Interpreted

I understand an interpreter's function is to facilitate communication. Interpreters are not responsible for what is said by anyone for whom they are interpreting. Even if I disagree with what is said or think it is wrong, a lie or immoral, I will suspend judgment, make no comment, and interpret everything accurately.

Client Self-Discrimination

I understand that, as the interpreter, the client may ask me for my opinion. If this happens, I will not influence the opinion of the clients by telling them or offering them advice as to what action to take during or after this assignment.

Attitude Toward Clients

I shall strive to develop a relationship of trust and respect at all times with the client by adopting a caring, attentive, yet discreet and impartial attitude toward the client, toward his or her questions, concerns and needs. I shall treat each client equally with dignity and respect regardless of race, color, gender, religion, nationality, age, political persuasion or life-style choice. I will be sensitive and aware of dignity and respect within the context of the client's culture.

Acceptance of Assignments

I understand that if my level of competency or beliefs or personal opinion makes it difficult to abide by any of the above conditions, I must make the Agency provider aware of this and decline this assignment or, if the assignment has begun, withdraw from the assignment for the well-being of the Agency provider and the client. I understand no adverse repercussions will follow because of my decision to refuse or withdraw.

I will disclose any real or perceived conflict of interest that could affect my objectivity. For example, an interpreter should refrain from providing services to family members or friends.

Compensation

I shall not accept any fee or additional money, considerations of favors for my interpreter service from the client, patient or customer, or his friends or relatives. I further understand that I shall not use the agency’s time, facilities, equipment or supplies for private gain, nor will I use my position to secure privileges.

Self-Evaluation

I shall represent my qualifications, certification(s), training and experience accurately and completely.

Ethical Violations

If I perceive encounters that I believe to be in violation of the Code of Ethics, I will inform the Agency provide immediately. If the situation cannot be resolved, I shall withdraw from the assignment.

Professionalism

I shall maintain professional behavior at all times while serving or working with clients and professionals.

I have read the above Code of Ethics, and by my signature, I agree that I will interpret according to the standards set forth and abide by these mandates.
