Dear Polk County Bar Members:

The winners of the annual Law Day Poetry, Essay, Visual Arts, Music and Drama competition sponsored by the Polk County Bar Association will be recognized at the PCBA luncheon on May 12, 2015.

Our theme this year is “Magna Carta: Symbol of Freedom Under Law.”

Students in 6th through 12th grades, from schools throughout the Des Moines area, enter the PCBA Poetry, Essay, Visual Arts, Music and Drama competition. The winning students, their teachers and parents are invited to the PCBA Annual Meeting on May 12, 2015 at the Downtown Marriott, 6th and Grand Avenues, Des Moines. Teachers have informed us that students and parents are particularly pleased to be honored at the PCBA meeting.

We are asking for additional involvement from PCBA members to ensure that the participating students have meaningful experiences and direct interaction with attorneys and judges. This request is based on budgetary constraints and the desire to ensure that students actively engage with lawyers and judges during the awards luncheon. Please consider sponsoring a winning student, the student's teacher and the student's parent or parents. The cost of sponsoring such a group is $100. Sponsors may sit with the winning students, as space allows, and if so desired, and will be recognized in the written program.

If you have any questions, please contact the committee co-chairs Gail Sheridan-Lucht at Gail.Sheridan-lucht@iwd.iowa.gov or 281-6374 or Dan Saar at daniel.saar@iowacourts.gov or 725-2236. Please send sponsorship funds to the Polk County Bar Association, Law Day Committee, 625 East Court Avenue, Suite 100, Des Moines, Iowa 50309

Please complete the form below and return it, along with your check, before May 1, 2015. We will assign students to sit with sponsors, if so desired, and therefore need to know the names of sponsors who will attend the luncheon and wish to sit with students.

Thank you for your support of this important project.

Sincerely,

Gail Sheridan-Lucht and Dan Saar
