(CONT'D)

An entering student who has been admitted to an institution of higher education, must show evidence of an initial bacterial meningitis vaccine or booster dose during the five-year period preceding and at least 10 days prior to the first day of the first semester in which the student initially enrolls.

EXCEPTIONS F-1 International Students:

A student is not required to submit evidence of receiving the vaccination against bacterial meningitis, or evidence of receiving a booster dose if the student is 22 years of age or older.

A student, or a parent/guardian of a student, is not required to submit evidence of receiving the vaccination against bacterial meningitis if, one of the following circumstances are applicable. Please check if applicable.

_____ (1) An affidavit or a certificate signed by a physician who is duly registered and licensed to practice medicine in the United States, in which it is stated that, in the physician's opinion, the vaccination required would be injurious to the health and well-being of the student; or

_____ (2) An affidavit signed by the student stating that the student declines the vaccination for bacterial meningitis for reasons of conscience, including a religious belief. A conscientious exemption form from the Texas Department of State Health Services must be used.
<https://webds.dshs.state.tx.us/immco/affidavit.shtm>

The exception noted in subsection (2) does not apply during a disaster or public health emergency, terrorist attack, hostile military or paramilitary action, or extraordinary law enforcement emergency declared by an appropriate official or authority from the Texas Department of State Health Services and is in effect for Navarro College.

NAVARRO COLLEGE

STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

Please read the following statements carefully. You must agree to each statement before being considered for admission into Navarro College.

I understand and agree that:

1. If I attend the Corsicana campus, I am required to live on campus for the duration of my stay at the Corsicana campus. I agree to send the $240 housing deposit with my application. (15 credit hours per semester are required to reside on campus).
2. If I attend any other Navarro College campus, I must make my own arrangements for housing. (Navarro College does offer on-campus housing. 15 credit hours per semester are required to reside on campus).
3. I must provide my own insurance coverage while enrolled in Navarro College. Navarro College does not require, nor provide insurance.
4. I have read and understand all admission procedures. I understand that all documents and materials relating to my admission should be posted to the Navarro College Office of International Student Services. I also understand all required documentation relating to my admission must be either the original or a certified true copy of the original.
5. My original application and materials are valid for only one year.
6. If my complete application arrives after the final application deadline of the intended semester, my admission will be considered for the following semester.
7. If I am successful in gaining admission and a VISA, I must be at Navarro College on or before the date specified on the I-20, but no earlier than 30 days. If I cannot arrive on time, I must request that my application be considered for the following semester.
8. When I enroll at Navarro College to attend the Waxahachie, Midlothian or Mexia campuses, I agree to take and complete a minimum of 12 credit hours the first semester of enrollment and subsequent fall and spring semesters until my studies are complete. Nine of my twelve hours each semester must be face to face and offered on one of the four Navarro College campuses. Only one internet course will be counted toward my full time requirement. (It is recommended that I enroll in at least 15 credit hours each fall and spring semester). I acknowledge it is my responsibility to meet with an advisor each term to ensure that my courses are in compliance with these standards.
9. When I enroll at Navarro College to attend the Corsicana campus, I will live on campus. I agree to register for a minimum of 15 credit hours the first semester of enrollment and subsequent fall and spring semesters until my studies are complete. I must complete 12 hours each fall and spring semester in order to maintain an active immigration status and to remain in on campus housing. Nine of my twelve hours each semester must be face to face and offered on one of the four Navarro College campuses. Only one internet course will be counted toward my full time requirement. I also understand that in order to remain on campus, I must maintain a 1.75 GPA after my first semester at Navarro College and all subsequent semesters. I acknowledge it is my responsibility to meet with an advisor each term to ensure that my courses are in compliance with these standards.
10. After registering for classes, I agree to make payment by the designated deadline for that semester. Also, I agree to fulfill all financial obligations for EVERY semester in which I may enroll at Navarro College.
11. I understand that F1 students are not authorized to work off campus and my immigration status may be terminated if I am found to be in violation of this federal immigration policy.

NAVARRO COLLEGE RESIDENCE LIFE

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT CONTRACT

Welcome to the Residence Life Program at Navarro College! Navarro College hopes that, as a student, you will find your involvement with Residence Life and your interactions with our staff to be enjoyable. Navarro College has an outstanding residence life program and encourages you to become an integral part of it. The Residence Life program provides many avenues for involvement, as well as opportunities for growth. You have the chance to grow through the development of new friendships, the exploration of new ideas, and involvement in new activities. The Residence Life Department strives to provide a suitable environment for all residents during their stay on campus. This Residence Life Student Code of Conduct Contract is a summary of the policies and standards related to on-campus living at Navarro College. The contract is designed to let you know what you can expect from Navarro College and what Navarro College expects from you as a student living on campus. Our purpose is to nurture, guide, and support residents during their education and other endeavors. It is a privilege to live in housing and to participate in the programs and activities. Therefore, all Residents who are selected to live in Housing must abide by the expectations of the Residence Life Department. Below is a list of policies and standards that students must abide by to reside in Housing. Students who do not abide by these policies and standards will face consequences, including disciplinary action from Navarro College.

Students Rights and Responsibilities/Student Policies and Conduct: Residents shall be familiar with and abide by the Student Code of Conduct as set out in the Navarro College Student Handbook as well as the Residence Hall Policies and Procedures found in the Residence Life Student Handbook.

Drugs or Drug Paraphernalia: Drugs or drug paraphernalia is not allowed on campus. Residents who participate in the use, sale, manufacture, or distribution of, or who are in the presence of, drugs will not be tolerated at Navarro College.

Alcohol or Alcohol Paraphernalia: Alcohol or alcohol paraphernalia is not allowed on campus.

Smoking: Navarro College Residence Life maintains a non-smoking environment. Please refer to College staff for designated smoking areas.

Weapons, Ammunition, or Explosives: Residents are not allowed to have any weapons, ammunition, or explosives on campus.

Profanity, Obscenity, or Abusive Language: Profanity, obscenity, or abusive language is not allowed on any campus of Navarro College.

Harassment, Discrimination, or Sexual Harassment: Navarro College values the complexity and diversity of the world in which we live and seeks to be a community that recognizes the dignity and inherent worth of every person. No member of the College community shall willfully harass, sexually harass, discriminate against, or interfere with the activities, preferences, or legitimate rights of any person in any way that deprives that person of due consideration as an individual.

Campus Quiet Hour/Courtesy Hours: Campus Quiet Hour begins at 10:00 p.m. every night and continues until 10:00 a.m. Loitering is prohibited in the Residence Life and Gibson Hall areas. Regard for noise consideration for other residents should be observed twenty-four hours a day. Courtesy Hours are in effect twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, regardless of Quiet Hours. The purpose of Courtesy Hours is to make each student responsible for the environment in the residence halls. Consideration for one another is the key to maintaining a conducive learning environment. Failing to respond positively when approached by another student or a staff member to lower the noise level is a violation of courtesy hours. Sound carries easily through a residence hall. Voices, stereos, televisions, and bouncing balls in your room often can be heard in other rooms. You may be asked by other residents or staff to adjust the sound/noise level in your room. Yelling and playing loud music is strictly prohibited at Navarro College.

Room Keys: Under no circumstances should a resident give or loan another person his or her room keys.

12 Credit Hours: All residents are required to maintain twelve college credit hours or more to live on campus. Failure to abide can result in removal from campus housing. A load of fifteen or more credit hours is recommended each semester.

Dress: Residents are expected to dress in appropriate attire that represents a positive reflection of a student attending a higher education institution. Please refer to the student handbook for appropriate attire.

Visitation: Residents should familiarize themselves with the visitation hours for members of the opposite sex and non-residents. Visitation hours are as follows: 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 a.m. Friday and Saturday.

Theft: Theft or illegal possession of stolen property is subject to disciplinary action.

Identification Cards: Failure to present proper Navarro College identification to a College official will result in disciplinary action. Navarro College ID cards should be visible at all times and worn in the chest area.

Disciplinary Point System: The disciplinary point system is designed to promote consideration and safety for others living in our housing community. If a resident accumulates any combination equaling 6 points in an academic school year (this includes Fall, Spring, Minimesters, Summer sessions, and break periods), he/she will be removed from the Residence Life Program. Please refer to Residence Life Handbook for further information.

Off-Campus Behavior: Residents involved in off-campus activities that violate convictions of federal, state, or local laws, excluding traffic violations, may be subject to disciplinary action as well.

Mandatory Meetings: Residents are required to attend mandatory meetings to be advised of information pertaining to living on campus. Non-attendance will result in a monetary fine.

Respect of College Officials: All residents are expected to respect the authority of Navarro College officials. Failure to acknowledge a request from a College official will result in disciplinary action.

Assaults/ Threats/ Violent Behavior: Assaults, threats, or acting in a violent manner, such as fighting and/or loud arguments, will not be tolerated on campus and will result in disciplinary action.

I understand and agree to abide by the terms stated above as a privilege to living on campus. Failure to sign this contract revokes the privilege to participate in Residence Life at Navarro College.
