APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS: Along with this application you must include the following items. Your application will not be complete until all of these items are received exactly as described below via postal mail.

All Applicants:

- $75 non-refundable Application Fee by money order or certified check (US bank), cash, credit card, and personal check (US applicants only) payable to: The Lee Strasberg Theatre and Film Institute.
- One Photo for identification purposes only (passport size preferred but not required).
- One Letter of Reference that speaks to the student's character may be from teachers, coaches, artistic professionals, academic advisors or anyone who knows the applicant from a position of authority or instruction. One can be a personal reference (family members are not preferred). Letters should be typed in English, signed, dated, and contain contact information. Letters cannot be more than six (6) months old. Professional letters should be issued on letterhead. All letters should be submitted in original hard copy.

Applicants in Grade 7 and above must ALSO submit:

- A Second Letter of Reference may be from teachers, coaches, artistic professionals, academic advisors or anyone who knows the applicant from a position of authority or instruction. One can be a personal reference (family members are not preferred). Letters should be typed in English, signed, dated, and contain contact information. Letters cannot be more than six (6) months old. Professional letters should be issued on letterhead. All letters should be submitted in original hard copy.
- An Essay (no less than 125 words and no more than 250 words typed) describing your goals in the field of acting and why you wish to study at Young Actors at Strasberg.
- (Optional) A Résumé/CV of any prior training and/or experience (experience not mandatory) typed. If you do not have any prior training or experience in acting then please include current and past education and extra-curricular involvement history, regardless of field.
- Verification of Previous Studies recorded by whatever method your primary education institution employs each semester/quarter (i.e. report card, progress reports, mid-term grades, or partial transcripts) from middle school and/or high school studies. All submitted documentation must be in English or accompanied by an official, notarized English translation if issued in another language.
- Non-U.S. Citizens applying to our summer programs MUST provide documentation describing the source of the sufficient funds you will have available to cover for tuition and living expenses (calculated US $2,000 per month) while you are a student at Young Actors at Strasberg. (If the financial statement is in a name other than your own, the person whose name appears on the account must submit an affidavit of support and bank account information). Original bank letters, bank statements, and affidavits of support must be accompanied by an official English translation and include the USD equivalent of available funds issued by the bank or financial center.
- (Highly Recommended) Health Insurance card photocopy must be included for verification. If you do not have student health insurance, health insurance through your family, government or through your employer, we very strongly advise that you obtain health insurance should you be admitted to Young Actors at Strasberg.
- English Language Testing Requirements for Non-Native English Speakers: TOEFL Exam minimum requirements for international admissions consideration: 85 (Internet-based). All non-native English speaking applicants are required to submit TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) results, issued within the past two years.
