

Vegetable Gardening

Get to know your seeds and vegetables, & what to plant when!

Styles Barton,
Whitestone, Exeter
6th April 2010
10am-4pm

This one day training course will illustrate simple soil science, plant growth, cropping techniques, plant raising and an introduction to fruit. The course is aimed at volunteers working on community projects.

This course will:

- Give you the confidence to get growing!
- Show how you can produce crops for most of the year with good planning
- Demonstrate techniques for sowing seeds in trays & directly in the garden
- Learn about soil types, fertiliser and nutrition
- Basic Pests and Diseases

It will also cover:

- Varieties of vegetable
- Introduction to fruit

The venue is the base for Devon Garden Services run by Mark Brown. The site overlooks the city of Exeter with fantastic views of rolling countryside to the north. There is a large enclosed barn, polytunnel with propagating bench, and good toilet facilities.

The event is free to HogCO members, and £15 (non refundable) for other organisations.

HogCO participants are required to make a £10 refundable deposit to secure their place. Places are limited so early booking is essential, using the booking form overleaf.

Please ensure you bring your own packed lunch for this event. Tea and coffee will be provided.
