

2013 General Frank Smoker
*Beyond the Call Award

The annual General Frank Smoker Beyond the Call Award was established to honor a Lebanon Valley Chamber of Commerce member or member business that has provided exceptional support to one or more service member(s) or veteran(s), their spouses and/or family during a period of time a service member(s) of any branch of the armed services was in active service. Multiple awards may be presented, and the Chamber’s Military Affairs Committee will serve as the official selection committee.

Nominations may be made by any Lebanon Valley Chamber member, a service member from any branch of the service, or by company employee(s) member, who has knowledge of the support. This support must have been provided any time during the 2012-2013 calendar years.

Major General Frank H. Smoker, Jr. served as Commander of the Pennsylvania Air National Guard 1978 to 1985, retiring after 42 years of service to his state and nation. Click here for General Smoker’s biography.
