2.3 If a provision in a definition is a substantive provision conferring rights or imposing obligations on any party, effect shall be given to it as if it were a substantive provision in the body of the agreement, notwithstanding that it is in the definitions clause.

3. THE LEASE

The landlord hereby leases the premises to the tenant who hires the premises on the terms and conditions of this agreement, which incorporates the Schedules.

4. THE PERIOD

4.1 The period of the lease commences on the commencement date and terminates on the termination date as reflected in the Schedule 1 hereto.

4.2 If the landlord wishes to terminate this lease on the termination date, or, in the event of the exercise by the tenant of his option to extend the lease, on the expiry of the option period, the landlord shall notify the tenant thereof in writing at least that number of months mentioned in item 14 of Schedule 1 before the arrival of the said date. Unless the tenant receives notice in the manner aforesaid, the lease shall automatically be extended on the then operative conditions of this agreement, until one party terminates the lease with at least three calendar months' written notice to the other party.

5. OPTION

- 5.1 The tenant has an option to extend the lease for the option period.
- 5.2 In the event of the tenant exercising the option, he shall be obliged to give the landlord written notice thereof as provided in 5.3 hereunder. When the tenant gives such notice any notice, which the landlord has given or may give in terms of 4.2, shall lapse automatically.
- 5.3 At least six months prior to the expiry of the lease period the landlord shall advise the tenant in writing of the rental payable for the period. Within three months of such advice the tenant shall be entitled to exercise the option referred to in clause 5.2 above.

6. THE RENTAL

- 6.1 The lease commences with the commencement rental. Thereafter the rental shall escalate with the escalation rate on each adjustment date.
- 6.2 The rental shall be payable from the commencement date monthly in advance on or before the seventh day of each month at the address of the landlord or at such other address in the Republic of South Africa as may be nominated in writing by the landlord.
- 6.3 The parties agree that all rentals payable in terms of this agreement shall include value-added tax where such tax is payable. The landlord shall specify such tax separately from the basic rental.
- 6.4 Costs incurred as a result of an -
- 6.4.1 increase in the assessment rates in respect of the property which comprises the premises or on which the premises are situated;
- 6.4.2 increase in the value-added tax levied on the rental.

Handwritten signatures and initials, including a large 'R' and 'VM'.

6.4.3 imposition of new statutory taxes or levies on leasing;
during the period of the lease, shall be refunded by the tenant to the landlord on the submission by the landlord of properly detailed accounts together with sufficient proof thereof if required.

7. USE OF PREMISES

7.1 The tenant records that he will use the premises for the purpose specified in Schedule 1 and for no other purpose, except with the written consent of the landlord, which consent shall not be withheld unreasonably

7.2 The landlord shall be obliged to obtain such consents and authorisations (excluding trade and other licenses) as may be required by competent authorities or title conditions to enable the tenant to use the premises for the purpose referred to in 7.1. The tenant shall, prior to the conclusion of this lease, be informed of such restrictions.

8. CONDITION OF THE PREMISES AT THE COMMENCEMENT DATE AND AT THE TERMINATION DATE

8.1 Schedule 2 contains details of the user-installations required, of the party responsible for effecting those installations and of the party who bears the costs thereof. Schedule 2 also contains the obligations, if any, of the tenant in regard to the removal thereof at the termination date.

8.2 Should the tenant, when occupying the premises, discover that any of the keys, locks, doors, windows, washbasins, taps, sanitary conveniences, sewerage or other pipes, electrical equipment or other appliances or equipment belonging to the premises are not in working order, he shall within thirty days of taking occupation advise the landlord in writing of such defects. The landlord shall within fourteen days after receipt of such notice repair the defect(s).

8.3 Should the landlord fail to comply with his obligations in respect of user-installations, if any, or fail to repair the defects of which notice was given in terms of 8.2, the tenant shall notify the landlord in writing of such failure and unless the landlord so complies within fourteen days, the tenant shall be entitled to rectify those matters at his own expense and to recover the costs thus incurred by way of set-off against the rental.

- 8.4 On the termination date the tenant shall comply with his obligations, if any, in regard to the user-installations referred to in 8.1 as well as his obligations in regard to fixtures as defined in 9.1. Inasmuch as the obligation regarding the maintenance and operation of lifts and the air-conditioning system rests with the landlord, the tenant has no obligations in this regard at the termination date. For the rest, the tenant shall comply with his obligations in respect of maintenance as defined in 10.1 so that the tenant at the termination date returns the premises to the landlord in the condition they were in at the commencement date, fair wear and tear excepted.

9. FIXTURES

- 9.1 The parties agree that for the purposes of the interpretation of this clause and of this lease, fixtures shall refer to movable or immovable fittings installed by the tenant and required for his purposes, such as computer cables, telephone systems and fire detection equipment. The tenant shall be entitled, at his expense and with the written consent of the landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld (alternatively, as arranged in Schedule 2), to install fixtures (which shall remain the property of the tenant) on the premises provided that, at the termination of this lease -

9.1.1 fixtures may be removed by the tenant on condition that the premises are restored before the termination date to the condition in which they were before the installation of the fixtures, fair wear and tear excepted;

9.1.2 the landlord may demand that fixtures which have not been thus removed, shall be removed by the tenant, in which event the same requirements regarding the restoration of the premises shall apply;

9.1.3 the tenant shall not be entitled to compensation for fixtures which are not removed.

Handwritten signatures and initials are present at the bottom right of the page. There is a large, stylized signature that appears to be 'B' or '10'. To its left, there are several smaller initials and marks, including 'UM', 'R', and 'E'.

10. EXPENSES, MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS

10.1 For the purposes of the interpretation of this clause and of the lease, the parties agree that the words in the heading bear meanings assigned to them hereunder:

10.1.1 "expenses" - those disbursements in respect of the premises which are occasioned by the ownership or the operation thereof, e.g. assessment rates, municipal levies, air-conditioning and lift maintenance, insurance premiums, etc.;

10.1.2 "maintenance" - everything which is required to be done in order to enable the tenant to return the premises to the landlord on the termination date in the condition they were in at the commencement date, fair wear and tear excepted. This includes the cleaning of the premises, general daily upkeep such as the replacement of electric bulbs and washers for taps, the repair of locks, etc., i.e. everything short of "repairs" as defined hereunder;

10.1.3 "repairs" - everything which is required to be done in order to achieve the same goal as that envisaged in the definition of "maintenance", but which requires more labour and more expense than maintenance, such as the replacement of cables, taps, locks, floor tiles and the like. The parties are agreed that normal wear and tear may require repairs with the passing of time.

10.2 Unless agreed to the contrary and then recorded herein, the tenant is liable and the landlord is liable for the responsibilities as set out in Schedule 3 hereto.

10.3 It is specifically recorded that the Tenant has borne the responsibility for the drafting of this agreement and the Tenant shall not be liable for the cost of any amendments, additions or changes effected to the agreement.

10.4 In the event of the premises being a portion of a building and it consequently being necessary to determine the tenant's pro rata share in respect of maintenance or the consumption of necessary services, the pro rata share of the tenant, for the purposes of this agreement, shall be determined by calculating the area of the premises as a fraction of the total area of the building. For the purposes of such calculation areas shall be determined from time to time by the Sapoa-method for the calculation of rentable areas. Where the pro rata share or portion thereof is payable to the landlord, the tenant shall pay on receipt of a properly substantiated account.

- 10.5 Should the landlord fail to pay expenses or to undertake repairs the tenant may remind the landlord in writing, and should the landlord still be in default thirty days after receipt of such reminder, the tenant shall be entitled to demand specific performance or to pay such expenses or to undertake such repairs and to recover the amounts thus disbursed from the landlord by way of set-off against future rental. A certificate by the tenant of such expenses shall be prima facie proof thereof.

11. LIMITATION OF THE LIABILITY OF THE LANDLORD

- 11.1 The landlord shall not be liable for any damage which the tenant may suffer as a consequence of rain, wind, hail, lightning, fire, earthquake, storm, riots, strikes, actions by enemies of the State or in consequence of the interruption of any facility or service supplied to the premises by third parties, unless such damage is caused by the intent or negligence of the landlord, his employees or agents.
- 11.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of 11.1, the tenant shall be entitled to a reduction of rental for any period (normal disconnection for maintenance accepted) during which the central air-conditioning system or the lifts, if any, are out of order.
- 11.3 The landlord shall not be liable for any accident, injury or damage suffered by the tenant, his employees, agents or visitors, in or near the premises, irrespective of the cause thereof, unless caused by the intent or negligence of the landlord, his employees or agents.

12. FIRE FIGHTING

The landlord shall be obliged to install fire-extinguishing equipment on the premises complying with the National Building Regulations, and the tenant will be responsible to maintain it.

Handwritten signatures and initials: a large 'R', a signature, 'VM', 'MS', and a large 'B'.

13. DAMAGE TO OR DESTRUCTION OF THE PREMISES

13.1 In the event of the premises being destroyed owing to circumstances beyond the control of the landlord and therefore rendered totally unfit for occupation, this lease shall be terminated automatically.

13.2 In the event of the premises being damaged owing to circumstances beyond the control of the landlord, but remaining wholly or partially suitable for the purposes of the tenant, either party shall be entitled to terminate this agreement by written notice to the other party. Should the parties continue with the agreement, the tenant shall be entitled to a reduction in rental to the extent to which the tenant is deprived of the full use of the premises.

14. GENERAL

14.1 The parties respectively choose as domicilium citandi et executandi and as the address for the serving of notices the address appearing opposite their names in Schedule 1.

14.2 This lease contains the whole agreement between the parties. Representations or guarantees, which are not contained herein, shall not be binding on the parties. Amendments to this lease or agreements contrary to the provisions hereof shall bind the parties only if they are reduced to writing and signed by the duly authorised representatives of both parties.

14.3 Notices pursuant to the provisions of this lease shall be given in writing. Notices by email or fax shall be deemed to be in writing, provided the original copies thereof are dispatched and received at the earliest possible date.

15. DEFAULT BY THE LANDLORD

In the event of the tenant alleging that the landlord is in default, the tenant shall not be entitled to take steps for the cancellation of this lease unless the default continues for thirty days after receipt by the landlord of a written notice from the tenant setting out the alleged default. Should the landlord fail to remedy such default within the thirty day period, the tenant shall, without prejudice to any other rights it may have, be entitled to cancel this lease by written notice, which notice shall indicate the date of termination.

Handwritten signatures and initials at the bottom right of the page. There are several scribbles and initials, including what appears to be 'VM', 'R', and '110'.

16. DEFAULT BY THE TENANT

16.1 In the event of the tenant failing to pay rental or to comply with any other provision of this lease, the landlord shall give written notice to the tenant of the alleged breach of contract and of the landlord's intention to cancel this lease.

16.2 Should the tenant still be in default thirty days after receipt of the notice referred to in 16.1, the landlord shall be entitled to cancel this lease in writing, to evict the tenant from the premises and to retake possession of the premises once again. In such an event the provisions of 8.4 shall remain valid.

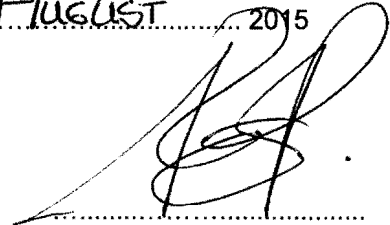

17. STAMP DUTY

The stamp duty on this lease shall be payable by the landlord.
