Jobsite Injuries

Imust report any injury, no matter how slight I think it is, to my supervisor, if I cannot find my supervisor, I will contact another supervisor within the company. I must also contact IHS Human Resources, LLC (IHS). Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. If injured on the job, I the employee must complete a FIRST REPORT OF INJURY with the supervisor and submit to drug testing. The employee is responsible for faxing a copy to (IHS) within 24hrs. Failure to do so may cause your Workman's Compensation benefits to be jeopardized. I understand treatment should be sought at a Minor Emergency Clinic, if possible. If I go to any private doctor who is not approved, the Company will not be held responsible for the bill. I will do all that is in my power to avoid injury but if I am injured on the job, I will report to the supervisor & (IHS) the same day informing them of any work restrictions that are placed on me by the doctor and that I cannot return to work without a release fit the doctor. Failure to cooperate in this will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All IHS Human Resources employees are subject to random drug screens.
