CAMP PROGRAM

The PWC Orchestra Camp is dedicated to provide student musicians in rising grades 5 - 12, the opportunity to have an excellent two week concentrated music experience. The program is designed to challenge students, at their own personal level from beginner through advanced with performance opportunities. A balanced program of musical instruction and activities which creates an atmosphere conducive to total learning, fun and individual musical growth. This camp gives students an excellent opportunity to strengthen musical playing skills, get experience if switching string instruments or to begin to learn how to play a stringed instrument.

CAMP FEATURES

- Beginning String Classes.
- Three different skill levels of orchestras.
- Daily rehearsals, sectionals, and technique classes.
- Students are grouped by individual musical playing ability.
- Culminating Concert Performance by each orchestra on the last day of camp.
- Optional Private lessons with camp faculty comprised of dedicated artist teachers.
- Camp T-Shirt
- Musical learning in a fun, relaxed atmosphere in the company of others who desire the same.

CAMP COST

The PWC Orchestra Camp runs Monday through Friday from July 25 - August 5, 2011. The camp hours are from 8:30 - 12:30 p.m. The cost for the two week camp is $180.00 per student. No transportation is provided but for the convenience of parents, a list will be provided of parents names and phone numbers to those who agree to share their information with other camper parents in hopes of forming carpools.
