MRA Auction

Class Baskets:

Room parents should be following up with each of you soon if they haven't already. Please watch for their emails. Remember—class baskets only make up a small number of auction items. We typically have around 200 silent auction items along with about 25 live auction items.

Procurement:

Many of you are asking great questions about procurement. Attached is an updated list of businesses already approached. If you don't see a business on the list, feel free to reach out to them for a donation. If they donate attach the receipt (in the memo) with their donation and either turn it into your classroom basket or into the school office. If they didn't donate please complete the Procurement Request form (attached) and put it into the basket or the office. You can also email Angie Brandenburg at mraauction@mra-k8.com and she can enter your information into our main procurement spreadsheet.

Tickets:

Tickets can be purchased online at: <http://molallariveracademy.schoolauction.net/2016auction/homepages/show>

VIP Tables:

This year we plan to have two VIP tables open for bidding. Bidding will open in February. More to come!

Disaster Preparedness Event Follow Up

Many thanks to Sarah Eckman with Clackamas County for coming out to MRA to present how to prepare for a disaster in Molalla and at MRA. She did leave some information with us on disaster preparedness. Flyers, brochures and cards are available for you to take outside the office on the table by Ms. Bythe's classroom.
