If Handgun Purchase: CCW , Permit to Purchase or FFL Number _____

It is illegal to purchase a handgun in a state other than the buyer's state of residence. Out-of-state handgun purchases must be transacted through a licensed federal firearms dealers in the seller's state of residence to a licensed federal firearms dealer in the buyer's state of residence.

It is illegal for a buyer that is not a licensed firearms dealer to purchase a firearm for the purpose of immediate resale or transfer. Depending on the circumstances the purchase could be interpreted as either buying and selling firearms without proper licensing or a fraudulent purchase for someone who cannot legally purchase a firearm.

Long guns may be purchased out-of-state without license or permit. It behooves the seller to accurately record the information above in case the buyer is later found to be unable to legally purchase a firearm or the firearm is later used in a crime.
