

December 2015

Important! Due to changing tax laws, please check our website on a regular basis for updates www.dbestax.com or call the office at 703-476-1504

Dear Valued Client,

As sure as the New Year comes around, so does another Tax Season. Please contact us at your earliest convenience to arrange to give us access to your tax information. Please try to provide your tax information as soon as the December bank, loan and credit card statements are reconciled, not before. It becomes difficult to get your return completed in a timely manner if we receive your information in February or receive it incomplete. Tax information coming to us after March 1st will cause your returns to go on extension. Please use this checklist to gather your important tax information before sending in or dropping your taxes off for preparation. We look forward to serving you this tax season.

It is important that reliable records are kept and that proof can be provided through bank and credit card statements, receipts, canceled checks, mileage records etc. We regret that we are no longer supporting QuickBooks versions older than QB2014.
