FILING FOR DISSOLUTION (DIVORCE)

What these forms do

This set of forms will help you to get a divorce (legally called a "dissolution of marriage") if you have no children under 21. If you have only children over 18 and under 21 who are in school, use the Dissolution with Adult Children Only forms (not yet available. Talk to a lawyer if you only have children 18, 19, or 20).

TALK TO A LAWYER BEFORE USING THESE FORMS IF:

- You are part of a same-sex couple AND:
  - o You are married, have a civil union, or registered in another state
  - You are married, have a civil union, or registered in another state in addition to Oregon
  - O You registered as domestic partners in Oregon before February 4, 2008
  - You are unsure if your partnership is a Registered Domestic Partnership (RDP)
  - o If you want partner support and either party lives in (or may move to) another state
- You want to divide the retirement benefits of either party
- Either party is a debtor in a current bankruptcy case

If Both Parties Already Agree

If you agree on all of the issues, you can file as Petitioner and the respondent can accept service of the Petition and sign a completed Judgment form. The respondent can also choose not to file a Response. If no response is filed, judgment will be entered based on what is in the Petition after you file a Motion for Order of Default (see "By Default" section below).

You can also file as Co-petitioners. Talk to a lawyer if you want to file as Co-petitioners.

Notice about these instructions and forms

These instructions are not a complete statement of the law. They cover basic procedures for simple dissolution cases with no children under 21. If you have complicated issues or questions about the law, talk to a lawyer.

All of the necessary forms should be online. If you cannot find a form, ask your local court.

Each court has local rules, programs, and procedures that may not be explained in these instructions. Refer to the Supplementary Local Rules for your county. These rules are available online or at your local court or law library. Forms and information about your local court are on the Oregon Judicial Department website.

Information about Dissolution

- A dissolution case starts with a "petition," which tells the court what you want. That's why you are called the "petitioner." The other person is the "respondent." The case ends with a "judgment," which is the court's final decision. The judgment is the document that finalizes your case and contains your rights and responsibilities. Your dissolution is effective once the judge signs the judgment.
  - o NOTE: the final judgment in this case will create rights and responsibilities that may be permanent. Support orders often can be modified later, but property orders usually can't. Talk to a lawyer if you have questions about these issues.

Keep the court informed of your current address so you get notice of all court dates. You don't have to use your home address on any court form. You may use any contact address where you regularly check in, as long as it is in the same state as your home. The court will assume that you receive all notices sent to that address. It is YOUR responsibility to let the court know if you move or want to get mail at a different address.

STEP 1: STARTING YOUR CASE

Keep In Mind:

- Talk to a lawyer if you or Respondent is already in bankruptcy. The court may not be able to proceed with your case until the bankruptcy is resolved.
- Registered Domestic Partners should see a lawyer if partner support is requested and either party might move out of state. If the new state does not recognize RDPs, you may have trouble collecting partner support.
- ✓ Note: Only same-sex couples can have Registered Domestic Partnerships.
  - You may be entitled to part of the respondent's retirement benefits. See the "Property and Debts" section for important information. You may lose this right if you do not include it in your Petition.

Legal Questions

Where to File

- o Marriage you must file in a county where either you or your spouse lives at the time you file. One spouse must have lived in Oregon for at least 6 months before the Petition is filed.
- o RDP you must file in a county where either you or your partner lives. If neither of you lives in Oregon but your RDP was registered here, you can file in the county where either of you last lived.

> Statutory Restraining Order

By filing your Petition, you agree to follow the terms of an automatic restraining order. The order is effective once the papers have been served on the respondent (see below for service information). If you don't follow the order, you can be held in contempt of court and subject to penalties.

- You must attach a copy of the restraining order (called "Notice of Statutory Restraining Order Preventing the Dissipation of Assets in Domestic Relations Actions") to the Summons and serve it on the respondent.
- The statutory restraining order prevents either party from:
  - Dissipating (transferring, selling, destroying, removing, disposing of) real or personal property.
  - Making changes to insurance policies without the agreement of the other party.
  - Making extraordinary expenditures (unusual or high-dollar payments or purchases). Expenditures that are necessary for the safety or welfare of the parties, ordinary business activities, or related to this court case are allowed.

Name Change

If you changed your last name when you got married or registered as domestic partners and want to change it back to a former legal name, you can request that on your Petition. NOTE: You cannot use this form to change your name to a name you have never used before.

o RDPs: If you changed your name through a separate name-change judgment and want to change it back, you should also file for another judgment to do that. Do not rely on the dissolution judgment to be effective for all purposes, especially federal records like Social Security, Medicare, and immigration. Talk to a lawyer if you have concerns.

Filling Out The Forms

- > You are the "Petitioner" on ALL forms throughout this case, and your spouse or partner is the "Respondent."
  - Use full names (first, middle or middle initial, last) and print names the same way on all forms first, middle, last.
- ➤ Mandatory Arbitration If the ONLY disagreement between you and the respondent is about property, mark in the caption that the claim IS subject to mandatory arbitration.
  - o If you disagree about any issue OTHER than property, mark that your claim IS NOT subject to mandatory arbitration.

Claim {☐ is ☐ is not } subject to mandatory arbitration

- ➤ Do not put Social Security numbers on your Petition. Social Security numbers must be given to the court but kept confidential from the public and the other party. Use the "Confidential Information Form" (CIF) to protect your identifying information.
  - o Fill out one CIF for each party.
  - The Notice of Filing of Confidential Information Form must be served on the respondent with your other documents. See below for information about service.

➤ If the other party does not respond, you may be able to get a judgment by default (see "Resolving Your Case," below, for more information). As you fill out your Petition, you must include enough information that the respondent knows what you are asking for. If you do not include specific requests, the court will not be able to enter a judgment by default until after you serve amended (changed) paperwork on the respondent.

• NOTE: this often happens with property awards, and debt allocations. See the Appendices for specific information.

Fill out the following forms

- Petition for Dissolution of Marriage/RDP
- Summons
- Record of Dissolution of Marriage, Annulment or Registered Domestic Partnership
- Confidential Information Form (CIF)
- Notice of Filing of Confidential Information Form

In some cases you will need additional paperwork before the court can enter a judgment. See the Appendices for more information about when you need each form.

- ♦ Uniform Support Declaration See Appendix A
- ♦ Statement of Assets & Liabilities See Appendix C

SUPPORT

There are three different categories of spousal or partner support in Oregon:

- > Transitional support is to help you get work-related education and training.
- Compensatory support may be ordered if you significantly contributed to the education, training, job skills, career, or earning capacity of your spouse or partner.
- ➤ Maintenance may be ordered for your general support.

Either party may request and be awarded support. More than one type of support may be awarded. Any award may be ongoing or for a particular period of time (such as 3 years, while in school, up to a certain amount, etc.).

If you and Respondent do not agree on support, you need to submit a Uniform Support Declaration. See Appendix A for more information.

For more information on factors the judge will consider when making the award, see ORS 107.105.

NOTE: Support is also available to Registered Domestic Partners. If either partner might leave the state or declare bankruptcy, you should see a lawyer.

Spousal and partner support are taxable income to the recipient. Spousal support is deductible to the person making payments (payor). RDPs should see a tax professional about support.

Life Insurance: The court can order a party to carry life insurance if that party is ordered to pay spousal/partner support. Life insurance in connection with a support obligation is for the benefit of the person receiving support.

PROPERTY AND DEBTS

You need to tell the court how you want to divide your property and debts. You should be as specific as possible and include everything you and the respondent own or owe. If any property or debts are not included in your judgment, you cannot return to court to make changes later except in very limited circumstances.

If you don't know what to ask for in your Petition, you can request "equitable relief." This means that the judge will decide what is fair if your case goes to trial. You should talk to a lawyer if you intend to do this.

You will probably have to serve new documents on the respondent before you can get a final judgment if:

- you are not specific in your Petition about how you want the court to divide property and debts (including if you asked for equitable relief)
- what you put in the Judgment is different from what you asked for in the Petition

For detailed information about property, see Appendix B.

STATEMENT OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

If your case goes to trial you will need a Statement of Assets and Liabilities. See Appendix C for more information and formats that you can use.

Have your documents reviewed

You may want to have your documents reviewed before you file. For information about how to find a lawyer, call the Oregon State Bar at the numbers on Page 2. If you are low-income, you might be able to get your documents reviewed for a smaller fee through the Oregon State Bar's Modest Means program. Your local Legal Aid office might review documents for free if you qualify. Facilitators might also be available for free in your court but you may have to make an appointment. Call your court for information.

Make copies

Make one copy of all of the completed forms for your records. See Step 2 for additional copies you will need.

STEP 2: FILING AND SERVICE

File your forms

File all of the original forms except the Summons and Notice of Statutory Restraining Order with the court clerk. The clerk will give you a case number when you file. Put the case number on all copies and originals. See below for a list of the forms you will need to copy to serve on the respondent.

You have to pay the filing fees when you file your papers. Go to http://courts.oregon.gov for the filing fee.

• If you are low income, you may ask the court to defer (postpone) or waive your filing fee. You must complete an Application and Declaration for Deferral or Waiver of Fees and an Order Regarding Deferral or Waiver of Fees and file them with your papers. If the fee is deferred, you will have to pay the fee later. If the fee is waived, you don't have to pay it. However, the judge may reconsider waived and deferred fees at the end of the case.

The clerk may give you some papers. A copy of these papers must be included with the Petition that you serve on Respondent (see below regarding service). NOTE: You are not required to serve the List Of Documents Parties May Have To Give Each Other (ORS 107.089) on Respondent, but if you do, then you both have to follow it.

Make a copy of the following forms to serve on the respondent:

- Petition
- Summons
- Notice of CIF Filing
- Notice of Statutory Restraining Order Preventing the Dissipation of Assets in Domestic Relations Actions
- Uniform Support Declaration and Statement of Assets and Liabilities (if you are filing these documents with your Petition) (see Appendices A and C for information)
- Any other forms your local court requires you to serve on Respondent

You must officially notify Respondent that you have filed a case. This is called "service."

Acceptance of Service – If it is safe for you to give the respondent the papers yourself, you will need an Acceptance of Service form. If the respondent signs an Acceptance of Service, no other kind of service is required. Signing the Acceptance of Service does not mean the respondent agrees with anything in your Petition, only that he or she received the papers. You must file the papers with the court before you give the copies to the respondent.

Formal Service

If the respondent does not want to sign the Acceptance of Service, you must use another method. There are four ways you can serve. Service must be done after your Petition is filed.

**3 CRITICAL POINTS**

- 1. If you serve before you file, you will have to pay to serve the papers again
- 2. You CANNOT serve the papers yourself
- 3. If Respondent has a lawyer, you should also send a courtesy copy of the papers to the lawyer

1. Personal Service:

- a. By Process Server: Take a copy of your papers to the sheriff's office in the county where Respondent is located and have a sheriff's officer serve the papers. The sheriff's office charges a fee for service. You can also hire a private process server of your choice.
- b. By a Non-Party: Have a competent* person 18 years or older who is a resident of Oregon and who is not a party to the case (Petitioner or Respondent), nor the lawyer of a party, serve the papers. The server cannot be an employee of any party. If the respondent is outside of Oregon, the server can be a resident of the state where the respondent is. If you have safety concerns, have the sheriff perform service.

A Certificate of Service must be filed with the court by whoever serves the respondent. The certificate must include the date of service and the name of the person served.

- 2. Substituted Service: The process server may leave the papers at the respondent's residence (where he or she normally lives) with someone 14 or older who lives there. The process server must also mail a copy of the papers (with a statement of the date, time, and place that the papers were served) to the respondent by first class mail. Make sure the process server completes a Certificate of Service. The date of service is the day the first class mailing is put in the mail.
- 3. Office Service: The process server may leave the papers with someone in charge of the respondent's office or normal workplace. The process server must also mail a copy of the papers (with a statement of the date, time, and place that the papers were served) to the respondent by first class mail. Make sure the process server completes a Certificate of Service. The date of service is the day the first class mailing is put in the mail.

4. By Mail: First, the process server must send the papers to the respondent's home or business address by first class mail. Second, the server must send a copy by certified mail, return receipt requested. The process server must file proof of service with the court, including the signed green card, date of receipt, and item number along with a Certificate of Service. If the green card is not returned or if someone other than the respondent signed for it, then service by mail was not effective and you must try another type of service. The date of service is the day the respondent signs the returned green card.

Proof of Service

The Certificates are your proof of service. An original Certificate of Service or Acceptance of Service must be filed with the court for your case to proceed, regardless of the method of service.

If proof of service is not received within 63 days of filing your Petition, the court may send you a notice of dismissal. Your case may be dismissed if you do not provide proof of service within 28 days of the notice.

If you are not able to have Respondent served by any of the methods listed above, you may ask a judge to allow you to use another service method. The judge might allow you to publish or post the documents. Forms to make this request are available online at www.courts.ojd.gov.

STEP 3: TEMPORARY ORDERS

You can ask the court to make temporary orders after you file the Petition. Temporary orders are effective as soon as a judge signs the order. They last until a judge changes the terms, signs General Judgment, or dismisses the case. For example, either party may request an order for spousal/partner support, or an order about temporary use of property. To make any of these requests, you must file a "motion" (request) asking the court to do what you want. You may need a lawyer to file these requests.

➤ NOTE: The General Judgment may affect earlier temporary orders done by Limited Judgment. Talk to a lawyer if you have questions.

Go to http://courts.oregon.gov for the forms to request temporary orders. The forms may not cover all temporary orders you need. Talk to a lawyer for more information.

Domestic Violence

All courts have restraining order forms for cases involving domestic violence. A judge will usually hear your request within a day or two of filing. Check with your local court for filing times and procedures.

Refer to http://courts.oregon.gov/fapa for Family Abuse Prevention Act (FAPA) forms and information.

Forms for other types of protective order are available at http://courts.oregon.gov

STEP 4: RESOLVING YOUR CASE

There are three ways your case can be resolved: by agreement between the parties, by default if the respondent doesn't respond, or by a judge in a hearing.

By Agreement

It is always better to resolve issues yourselves, since you know what's important to you. Once the case goes to a judge, it is out of your control. If you can't resolve the issues on your own, or if it is not safe for you to talk to Respondent, the court may provide options to help you, including mediation and arbitration. Some courts may require that you mediate before you have a hearing. Check your court's Supplementary Local Rules for more information.

Mediation: A mediator is a person trained to help people resolve disagreements. Mediation is confidential. You may ask to meet with the mediator alone if you are uncomfortable meeting with the other party for any reason. Check with your local court clerk to see if there is a fee for this service. Mediators are not judges – they cannot impose their decisions on you. Their job is to help you reach an agreement. This may be your last chance to retain control over the outcome of the case. Agreements incorporated into a Judgment are fully enforceable (see below).

If mediation has not yet been ordered in your case and you would like to request it, you may file a Request for Mediation form. You may also request that the court waive mediation requirements if you have a good reason by filing a Motion and Declaration for Waiver of Mediation. Talk to your court if you have safety concerns.

Arbitration: If you disagree only about how to divide your property, the court may send you to an arbitrator. The court may also ask the arbitrator to resolve spousal/partner support issues. An arbitrator is appointed by the court to meet with both parties and their lawyers (if any) and to make a decision about how property should be divided. Both parties are required to pay for this service unless the court orders otherwise. If either of you disagrees with the arbitrator's decision, you can ask the court for a trial, which requires payment of additional fees. If a trial is not requested, the arbitrator's decision is final unless both of you agree on another resolution.

If you and Respondent have agreed to all of the issues, fill out and file:

- Declaration in Support of Judgment
- General Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage/RDP

  Note: The Judgment must be signed by both parties before being submitted to the court

By Default

Respondent has 30 days to respond to your Petition. The time starts running from the day after the date of service. The response must be in writing and must be filed with the court and mailed to you. If the respondent does not file a response within 30 days, you may request an Order of Default.

Default means that you are asking the judge to award you what you asked for in your Petition because the respondent did not file a response. Look at Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure (ORCP) rule 69 for more detailed information.

➤ NOTE: If the respondent has given you written notice that he or she intends to appear, you have to give written notice that you intend to apply for a default order at least 10 days before you file your motion.

See Uniform Trial Court Rule 2.010 for the form your notice must be in. File your notice of intent with the court and serve it on the other party.

The judge may not grant a default if the respondent is incapacitated, a minor, a financially incapable person, a protected person, or a respondent in a fiduciary protective proceeding, as defined by ORS 125.005.

You must also show that the respondent is not in active military service before the court can enter an order of default. This is part of the Ex Parte Motion for Order of Default & Declaration in Support. If the respondent is in active military service, you cannot get an order of default unless the servicemember waives protection under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA). This federal law starts at 50 U.S.C. App 501. Your local law librarian can help you find it, or go to www.law.cornell.edu* (under Get the Law click U.S.Code, then click Appendix to Title 50). This law has strict rules about what "active military service" means. This protection does not apply to all servicemembers at all times.

If the respondent is in the military, you should see a lawyer before trying to get an order of default. If a default is not done properly, the respondent can re-open the case after returning from service. Be aware that if you knowingly make false statements about the respondent's status, you may face both federal and state penalties.

If you know the respondent is not in the military, you must state facts that explain how you know.

If you have the respondent's Social Security Number or date of birth, go to the Department of Defense website (www.dmdc.osd.mil/appj/scra/scraHome.do) to find out if the respondent is in active service. This site can give you a free statement of service status that you can print out (called a "certificate of service" on the website). Attach this statement, or a printout of the screen (by pressing the * This is an outside site maintained by Cornell University. The Oregon Judicial Department is not responsible for any information on this site. Links may have moved.

"print screen" button on your keyboard), to your motion. You can also call 571.372.1100 for military verification. Put the date and the name of the person you spoke with on your motion. If you don't have the Social Security Number or date of birth, commercial sites may be able to provide information.

If you don't know whether the respondent is in the military and have checked the website, or don't have the necessary information, mark "I am unable to determine whether this person is in military service" and add any facts that you do know. The judge will decide whether to grant the default.

> If Respondent is in the military

If Respondent is in active military service of the United States and has not responded to the Petition, the court won't go ahead with your case until one of the following things happens:

- (1) Respondent is no longer in active military service,
- (2) Respondent waives, in writing, the right to avoid default, or
- (3) the judge holds a special hearing in your case.

Talk to a lawyer if Respondent will not sign the waiver and you do not want to wait for military service to end. The SCRA rules are technical and complex. Contact the Oregon State Bar for help (contact information is on Page 2).

Requesting a Default - fill out the following forms:

- Ex Parte Motion for Order of Default and Declaration in Support
- Order on Motion for Default
- Declaration in Support of Judgment
- General Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage/RDP

Read your Petition CAREFULLY! The Declaration in Support of Judgment allows you to note any information that has changed since you filed the Petition. Read each section of the Petition you filed and note any changes in the spaces provided. You must complete the rest of the Declaration in all cases.

After you make yourself a copy of the completed forms, file the originals with the court any time after 30 days from the date of service. You must file the Motion for Order of Default by the 91st day after you filed the Petition (NOT the proof of service!). If not, your case may be dismissed.

The court will send you notice when your judgment has been entered.

By Trial

Conferences with the Judge

Many courts will schedule a "status," "pretrial," or "settlement" conference if a response has been filed. These meetings usually take place with a judge with both parties present, along with their lawyers (if any). You must attend any conferences that are scheduled unless you have received permission from the judge not to attend. At the conference, the judge may talk to you about how your case is going to be handled, consider requests for temporary orders, or set future court dates.

Many courts require that you mediate or arbitrate before you can get a hearing. See the Mediation and Arbitration sections above in the BY AGREEMENT section.

NOTE: You must give the other party an opportunity to review the judgment before you submit it to the court. See UTCR 5.100 for information.

The State Family Law Advisory Committee has written a guide that may help you prepare for trial. This guide is NOT a substitute for legal advice! The rules of court can be technical and complex, and you may damage your case if you are not properly informed. If your case goes to trial, you are strongly advised to talk to a lawyer. To read the guide, go

THE JUDGMENT

Regardless of how you resolve your case, a General Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage/RDP must be signed by a judge. One of you may be ordered to fill out the judgment form and give it to the court to be signed.

The judgment finalizes your dissolution and contains all of the issues decided in mediation, arbitration, trial, or by agreement.

➤ NOTE: The General Judgment may affect earlier temporary orders done by Limited Judgment. Talk to a lawyer if you have questions.

If the respondent DID NOT file a response, the information you fill out in the judgment should be exactly the same as what you requested in the Petition.

If the respondent DID file a response, the information should be the exactly the same as what was decided in mediation, arbitration, hearing, trial, or through your agreement. All parties must review the Judgment before you submit it to the court. You must send the Judgment document along with the Notice of Proposed Judgment or Order to the respondent.

The respondent can object to the Judgment. If that happens, you have to discuss the objections and attempt to resolve them before you submit the Judgment to the court. If you are not able to resolve the objections, the respondent can either send you a written statement explaining the objections, or they can submit the objections directly to the court. You must complete the Certificate of Readiness section of the Judgment to tell the judge whether there are outstanding objections. See UTCR 5.100(1) for more information about notice and objections.

If the respondent is responsible for preparing the judgment, the respondent must send the proposed judgment to you before submitting it to the court. Then you can review it and object to it within 7 days of the date it was sent to you. If you and the respondent are not able to resolve your objections after reasonable efforts, you can either send a written explanation of your objections to the respondent or directly to the court. You must notify the respondent of your intentions so that they can advise the judge that there are outstanding issues. The judge may make a decision after reviewing the documents, or the court may contact you with further information.

If you are responsible for preparing the final judgment, make a copy for yourself and one for Respondent (unless you got an Order of Default). File the original with the court. If your case involves spousal/partner support, file an extra copy of the judgment with the court.

Your dissolution is finished and effective the date the Judgment is signed by the judge. NOTE: the terms of your judgment are not enforceable until the court enters the judgment. You will receive a Notice of Entry of Judgment.

NOTE: Every document you file must have a mailing address or contact address where you will receive documents related to this case. You do NOT need to use your home address. You are responsible for checking your contact address. Notify the court in writing if your contact address changes.

Appendix A – Uniform Support Declaration

You may need to complete a Uniform Support Declaration (USD) if you and Respondent do not agree on an amount for spousal/partner support.

You can file yours with the Petition. If you don't file it with your Petition and you need one, you must provide it to the court and serve a copy on the respondent at least 14 days before the hearing.

If you are NOT requesting spousal/partner support, do not file the USD. If Respondent requests support, then you must file a USD at least 14 days before the hearing, and serve a copy on the respondent.

Tips for filling out the USD:

- Fill out both the Declaration and Schedule 1. Attach all of the documents that the Declaration and Schedule ask for.
- ➤ Use your actual, present expenses. Estimates are fine as long as they are realistic and you have no way of confirming the amount.
  - o Some items may not apply to you mark those spaces "N/A" (Not Applicable), but complete every item that does apply.
  - o If your amounts are unusual or likely to change soon, include a brief explanation of why (if you are temporarily living with a relative, or if one party moved out and is no longer contributing to shared expenses). Include an estimate of what you believe your expenses will be after the situation changes.
- ➤ If you have an expense that is not listed, add it, along with a brief explanation.
- ➤ If you anticipate any major changes (birth of a new baby, a layoff, a car payment or mortgage being paid off), note these as well. Do NOT include fears or possibilities only things you know or reasonably expect will happen.
- > Household items means things like paper towels, cleaning supplies, light bulbs, storage containers.
- ➤ If you are attending school, include your tuition payments, supplies and books, and any other necessary school-related costs.

The Uniform Support Declaration is Form 8.010.5 and can be found here: http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/programs/utcr in the Appendix of Forms.

Certificate of Mailing – the Uniform Support Declaration includes a Certificate of Mailing at the bottom of the form. Once the USD is completed, copy the entire form and all attachments and mail them to the respondent. THEN fill out the Certificate of Mailing and file the original with the court. Keep a copy of all documents for your own records.

Appendix B - Property and Debts

- > Real Property Include property that you own together or separately and property owned before the marriage/RDP.
  - o Include land, houses, mobile homes, and other structures attached to or built on land. Also include partial rights to land like the right to fish, farm, cut timber or mine minerals. This does not mean personal property like clothes, jewelry, furniture, cars, etc.
  - o Identify the property by address, lot, map, or plat number, or any other method that is specific enough to identify the property.
  - When completing the Judgment, use the full legal description of the property that is on the deed or tax records. If you improperly describe the property, you may not be able to enforce your judgment.
  - You should speak with a lawyer if:
    - any party is a debtor in a current bankruptcy proceeding.
    - there is a joint line of credit, such as a home equity line of credit, on any real property. This judgment is not binding on the lender and may not prevent the other party from using the credit line, even after the judgment.
    - anyone other than you and Respondent has any interest in the real property either now or in the future. For example:
      - ♦ if your title is only for life or for a fixed period of time
      - ♦ if anyone has a right-of-first-refusal to buy the property
      - ♦ if anyone else's name is on the title
      - ♦ if anyone else's name is on a loan that the property is collateral for. These people must be joined to the case or the court may not have authority to award that property.
    - you are concerned about the other party selling real property located in Oregon. You can put a hold on the title of the property during the case (called "lis pendens").

If ANY property was used to secure a loan, debt, mortgage, or other encumbrance, it is important that you speak with a lawyer. Future bankruptcy filings by either party may create problems for the other party in spite of this judgment. This is especially important for same-sex couples, as bankruptcy and IRS laws are federal and may not recognize the debt award of this judgment.

- Personal Property is anything you own together or separately that is not real property. This includes property owned before the marriage.
- ➤ If you want certain things plus equitable distribution of the rest, mark both boxes in the appropriate section and list the specific property you want in the space provided. BE AWARE that if you do not include enough information and the other party does not respond, you may have to serve the other party with corrected paperwork before you can get a Judgment.

Debts - The court will divide your debts. Use this table to list all debts in either or both of your names. Include debts that existed before your marriage/partnership; debts that you each or both incurred during your marriage/partnership; and debts that you each incurred after separation. If any debt includes amounts incurred both during the marriage/partnership and after separation, write in the "Who pays" column who should pay how much (see example). Talk to a lawyer if you have questions about who should pay which debts.

Example:

Name of Creditor (who	What dobt is for	Amount	Who	pays
money is owed to)	What debt is for	Amount	Petitioner	Respondent
Chase Bank	Credit Card	$10,000		X
Wells Fargo	Home Equity Credit Line	$20,000	$15,000	$5,000
	(petitioner added $10,000 after separation)
Local Lender	Petitioner's car loan	$4,500	X

Attach this page to the Petition if your list of debts is longer than the table in the Petition

Name of Creditor (who	What debt is for	Amount	Who	pays
money is owed to)			Petitioner	Respondent

Appendix C – Statement of Assets and Liabilities

You will need to file a Statement of Assets and Liabilities if the respondent files a Response and you have not reached an agreement as your trial date nears. Each party's Statement must be filed with the court and served on the other party at least 14 days before your trial. Check your local court's Supplemental Local Rules, Chapter 8 for other time limits and requirements.

Most courts prefer that you complete ONE joint form so that you don't have one form listing "house 1" and the other calling it "123 Main St." Your Statement should name the asset as specifically as possible. You and Respondent should do everything you can to agree on the value of your assets and liabilities. Then list who the court should give each entry to. You can use one of the formats below.

If you and Respondent agree on the value of each entry, use this format. You do NOT have to agree about who gets each asset – only about what the assets are worth.

Assets	Value	Petitioner's Claim	Respondent's Claim	Court Award
1998 blue Ford	$5,000	Pe titio ne r	Respondent
Ranger
Home - 123 Main St.	$250,000	Re spondent	Re spondent
Liabilities
Mortgage on 123 Main St, Chase Bank	$120,000	Respondent	Re sp o nd e nt
main St, Chase bank

(Here, the Petitioner and Respondent both want the Ford Ranger, but agree that Respondent should get the house and be responsible for the mortgage. Leave the last column blank for the judge.)

If you cannot agree on the value of each entry, use this format.

Asset	Petitioner's value	Petitioner's claim	Respondent's value	Respondent's claim	Court Award
1998 blue Ford Ranger	$5,000	Pe titio ne r	$15,000	Pe titio ne r

(Here, the parties disagree about the value of the truck, but agree that Petitioner should get it. Leave the last column blank for the judge.)

Information about the Confidential Information Form (CIF)

What is a CIF?

Most court files may be viewed by the public. Uniform Trial Court Rule (UTCR) 2.130 requires certain confidential personal information to be protected from public disclosure. That is done by providing the information in a separate form. After you file your papers, the court keeps the form separate from the part of the court file that may be viewed by the public. The form is UTCR Form 2.130.1, known as the Confidential Information Form, or CIF.

What information does a CIF make confidential?

The information protected by the CIF is social security numbers, birth dates, driver license numbers, and former legal names. Also protected are the name, address, and telephone number of a party's employer.

The CIF should only be used to protect the information described above. There may be other information in your court papers that you do not want the public to be able to see, such as bank account or credit card numbers. The separate process for protecting that information is described in UTCR 2.100, which can be read at:

http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/programs/utcr/pages/utcrrules.aspx

How do I know when I need to put information in the CIF?

When a document filed with the court requires you to include information protected by a CIF, that information must only be provided to the court in a CIF and must not be listed in any other document to be filed. Where you would otherwise provide the information in the document to be filed you must make a note that the information has been provided in the CIF. For example, if a document requires a party's full social security number to be listed, you must not list the social security number, but must instead make a note on the document that the information has been filed under UTCR 2.130. The online court forms already have that note on the form.

Do I need to file more than one CIF?

In most cases, yes. You must fill out a CIF for yourself, and if the documents you are filing with the court require confidential personal information about the other party, you must also fill out a separate CIF with the other party's information. If your case involves children, you should include their information in your CIF. You do not need a separate CIF for your children.

If there is CIF information you do not know when you file your papers, or if the information changes during your case, you must file an amended CIF that provides the new or updated information.

The CIF rule requires you to redact – black out or erase – confidential personal information from any attachments to documents you file with the court and to make a note on the attachment that the information has been provided in the CIF. The only exception is when you are required to attach a court-certified document. Documents that are required to be court certified should not be altered in any way.

Does the other party get copies of a CIF I file?

You are not required to serve the CIFs on the other party, though you may share a CIF with the other party if you chose to do so. You are required to serve the other party with UTCR Form 2.130.2, which is a notice that a CIF has been filed. You must also file a certificate with the court showing that you served the other party with the notice that a CIF was filed.

There are steps the other party and other people can go through to ask the court to allow them access to a CIF that you have filed. UTCR 2.130 explains that process in detail, and also describes the circumstances under which the court must deny a request by someone else to view a CIF you have filed.

The CIF rule (UTCR 2.130) can be read at: http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/programs/utcr/pages/utcrrules.aspx and you can find additional information about the rule and family law processes at: http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/OSCA/JFCPD/Pages/FLP/Index.aspx
