DINING

DINING & ENTERTAINMENT

Macau's location and history have given it an enviable reputation for delicious food that draws on both its Chinese and Portuguese roots. At Grand Hyatt Macau, this reputation is embodied and celebrated in a range of restaurants and bars that focus on delighting, surprising and tantalising diners' palates.

The hotel's two main restaurants were inspired by award-winning eateries in its sister hotels in Beijing and in Singapore.

Cuisine

RESTAURANTS

• Beijing Kitchen

With an interior decked out in rich traditional Chinese décor accented with selected western accoutrements, Beijing Kitchen offers diners a truly authentic northern Chinese dining experience. Four show kitchens overseen by a master chef create custom-designed Chinese delicacies, from traditional Peking Duck prepared in wood-fired ovens and hand-pulled noodles to dim sum, to a wide selection of desserts.

• Lobby Lounge

Highlighted by a striking cluster of copper art pieces, Lobby Lounge is an ideal venue for gathering among friends. The lounge also features Pâtisserie, offering a wide variety of sweets, such as the famous authentic Portuguese egg tart and a selection of cakes and homemade chocolates. While enjoying these treats, guests are entertained by performances of the live band, accompanied by traditional Chinese and Western musical instruments.

• mezza9 Macau

Inspired by its award-winning namesake mezza9 at Grand Hyatt Singapore, mezza9 Macau offers different sensory experiences indoors or on the outdoor terrace. Discover the different dining experiences of Macanese, the grill, the sushi and sashimi, the wok, the steam basket, the deli, the pâtisserie, the cellar and bar.
