ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Dear Duke Alumni and Friends:

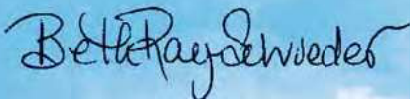

The evolution of ancient volcanic activity beneath the sea, sculpted by waves and wind over millennia, created the idyllic islands of Tahiti, Huahine, Taha'a, Bora Bora and Moorea. Experience the earthly paradise and spectacular shores that have beckoned travelers for centuries during this nine-night land/sea sojourn. Enjoy two nights in Papeete, Tahiti, and seven nights aboard the five-star plus M.S. PAUL GAUGUIN, specially designed to cruise the crystalline waters of the South Pacific. We invite you to join us for this splendid opportunity featuring included Air from Los Angeles* and Early Booking Savings through July 23, 2013!

Cruising aboard the intimate, deluxe, 166-Stateroom M.S. PAUL GAUGUIN provides an unmatched small ship experience amid the islands, atolls and motus of Tahiti and French Polynesia. And, a whole host of complimentary features aboard ship are included: all onboard gratuities; complimentary wine, spirits and soft drinks are served throughout the ship, including at every lunch and dinner, and replenished in your suite or stateroom throughout the cruise; complimentary water sports; and even complimentary personal butler service in suite Category 1 and stateroom Category 2.

Cultural enrichment abounds in the natural environment of French Polynesia. During your stay on Tahiti, explore the west coast of the island during an excursion to the Robert Wan Pearl Museum, the only museum of its kind, to learn about the Tahitian cultured pearl and admire the museum's unique private collection. An onboard naturalist will provide a variety of talks and demonstrations about the islands' history and cultural heritage throughout the cruise. You can observe—and even snorkel and swim with—extraordinary bird and marine life, and breathe in the fresh fragrances of vanilla, gardenia and jasmine that permeate the island air. As our Duke group grows in size, a Duke representative will be engaged to join the trip to add a uniquely Duke perspective.

This is the perfect opportunity to enjoy the five-star plus M.S. PAUL GAUGUIN cruising in its “home ports;” featuring air included from Los Angeles*. We encourage you to book now while space and Early Booking Savings are available!

Society Islands

Tahiti, “Queen of the Pacific,” and sister islands—Huahine, Taha’a, Bora Bora and Moorea—have appealed to visitors ever since Captain James Cook landed in 1769. This tropical paradise has captivated explorers and mariners, artists and writers alike—Captain Cook returned twice more, H.M.S. Bounty’s Fletcher Christian chose to remain and master Impressionist Paul Gauguin abandoned his family and career in France to embrace the seductive lifestyle of Polynesia. Visit Tahiti and experience the allure of the Society Islands for yourself.

Papeete, Tahiti

Bustling, cosmopolitan Papeete, the capital of French Polynesia and the gateway to the treasures of the South Pacific, has extended a hospitable welcome to visitors since its founding as a missionary settlement in 1824. Located on a natural harbor cooled by trade winds, Papeete enjoys one of the finest natural settings in the South Pacific, set against a backdrop of verdant, forest-clad peaks. Its tropical ambiance is complemented by the charm and diversity of its inhabitants, a vibrant blend of native Tahitian, French and Chinese. During the exclusive included excursion along Tahiti’s west coast, visit the ROBERT WAN PEARL MUSEUM, the only museum in the world dedicated to pearls, to see Tahiti’s finest cultured gems, and tour the MUSEUM OF TAHITI AND HER ISLANDS, which showcases significant archaeological finds, the island’s geology and its flora and fauna.

Huahine

Soaring peaks, lush rain forests, dazzling white beaches and ancient shrines distinguish this untouched paradise

Explore the mysterious underwater world of Bora Bora’s reefs and look for graceful double-saddle butterflyfish, dazzling corals and an abundance of exotic marine life.

The M.S. PAUL GAUGUIN was built specifically to navigate through the Society Islands and to provide a more intimate South Pacific experience.

formed of two islands—Huahine-Nui and Huahine-Iti—separated by a deep blue bay and ringed by a coral atoll. The idyllic port of Fare lies nestled between the sea and a woodland of towering mape (chestnut) trees draped with sweet-scented vanilla vines. In the nearby settlement of Maeva, the ancient religious center of Huahine-Nui, stand 10 marae (temples), built in the 16th century of locally quarried stone and dedicated to Tane, Oro and other Polynesian deities.

...o Seas experience.

Taha'a (Motu Mahana)

Idyllically set across a blue lagoon to the north of Huahine, Taha'a is dominated by the profile of Mount Ohiri, named for Hiro, the Polynesian god of sailors and thieves. Today, two exotic enterprises provide the islanders' livelihoods—the production of the world's most flavorful vanilla beans and the farming of lustrous black pearls. Spend the day on the private South Seas paradise Motu Mahana, where you can swim, snorkel or kayak, and enjoy a traditional Polynesian feast complemented by entertainment.

Bora Bora

Described as “the most beautiful island in the world” by author James A. Michener, Bora Bora is the proverbial vision of a South Seas paradise. Its distinctive black basalt peak is cloaked in a lush tropical forest and silhouetted against turquoise lagoon waters, where a coral reef and an outlying fringe of motu teem with multicolored fish. Bora Bora was settled by adventurous Polynesian mariners in the 10th century A.D. The islanders have preserved the ways of their forebears and still wear the traditional colorfully hand-dyed pareo or sarong. In Bora Bora's forested interior, villagers cultivate breadfruit, coconuts and taro, and preserve the ancient ruins of stone marae, the legacy of ancestral Polynesian deities.

Moorea

Moorea's distinctive heart-shaped island coastline formed by a long-extinct volcano creates its scenic splendor—palm fringed beaches, turquoise lagoons and dramatic volcanic peaks. A former sanctuary for vanquished Tahitian warriors, this island lured the American novelist Herman Melville in 1842, inspired Rodgers and Hammerstein to write Bali Ha'i and James Michener to pen his unforgettable Tales of the South Pacific. Impressive temples in Moorea evoke its Polynesian heritage while European churches underscore its role as the center for 19th-century missionary activity in the Society Islands.

Bora Bora's magnificent reefs entice snorkeling enthusiasts from around the world.

Contemporary islanders continue the ways of their forefathers, farming pineapples and papayas and crafting fine works of art from seashells and indigenous wood. In Moorea's village of Papetoai, a unique octagonal-shaped church is the oldest European structure in the South Seas still in use.

Look for endangered sea turtles that find sanctuary in waters of the South Pacific.
