

24th Sunday of Ordinary Time

We all learned in elementary school that a noun is anything that names a person, place, object, thing, or action. Running is a noun when it describes the activity of sprinters at this past summer's Olympics. Apple is a noun; so is Washington, whether you mean George or DC (or for that matter state, a street in many towns, or a dollar bill). They are all Washingtons. Most of the time, we learn the word for the item after we understand what it is. As children we learn that one round, red fruit is called an apple, while another one is called a tomato. There is at least one occasion in which the name comes first: the naming of a child. We give a name-often a name that has special meaning-without really knowing if this child will truly grow into the meaning of that name.

In the Gospel today Jesus is being named. His disciples recount the different names that people think apply to him. Some think he's John the Baptist because he takes on the Pharisees like John used to do. Others think he may be Elijah because he stands up for the poor against the powerful as that prophet did. Still others think that he's one of the other prophets from the past, speaking the word of God as they did. Peter names him the Christ, the anointed of God. It's a title that comes after the fact, put down when the Gospel was written thirty years after the death and resurrection of Jesus.

We can't wait until our sons and daughters are full grown before we decide on a name for them. We call them from birth by whatever name we choose for them. But through formation in the faith we strive to help them see that there is a name that they carry and one that they must live up to by virtue of their baptism. That name is "Christian."

Family Perspectives

Calling ourselves Christian is not sufficient. Allowing Jesus to lead as the Lord is necessary. Instead of praying for and pleading for what we want, sometimes we will need to suffer and take up our crosses in order to find abundant life.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners:

Today is a great day of celebration and prayer! A year-long journey for 29 candidates will come to an end when the Sacrament of Confirmation is conferred upon them by the Most Reverend Richard G. Lennon. Our parish family joins with them, their families and sponsors, and all the other members of the confirmation team in words of praise, congratulations and thanksgiving.

Litany of the Holy Spirit

Come, Spirit of wisdom, and teach us to value the highest gift. ...Come, Holy Spirit.

Come, Spirit of understanding, and show us all things in the light of eternity. ...Come, Holy Spirit.

Come, Spirit of might and strengthen us against every evil spirit and interest which would separate us from You. ...Come, Holy Spirit.

Come, Spirit of knowledge, and teach us the shortness of life and the length of eternity. ...Come, Holy Spirit.

Come, Spirit of godliness, and stir up our minds and hearts to love and serve the Lord our God all our days. ...Come, Holy Spirit.

Come, Spirit of the fear of the Lord, and make us tremble with awe and reverence before Your divine majesty. ...Come, Holy Spirit.

Faithful citizenship

The moral and human challenges outlined in the second half of Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship remain pressing national issues:

- Continuing destruction of unborn children through abortion and other threats to the lives and dignity of others who are vulnerable, sick, or unwanted;
- Renewed efforts to force Catholic ministries—in health care, education, and social services—to violate their consciences or stop serving those in need;
- Intensifying efforts to redefine marriage and enact measures which undermine marriage as the permanent, faithful, and fruitful union of one man and one woman and a fundamental moral and social institution essential to the common good;
- An economic crisis which has devastated lives and livelihoods, increasing national and global unemployment, poverty, and hunger; increasing deficits and debt and the duty to respond in ways which protect those who are poor and vulnerable as well as future generations;
- The failure to repair a broken immigration system with comprehensive measures that promote true respect for law, protect the human rights and dignity of immigrants and refugees, recognize their contributions to our nation, keep families together, and advance the common good; Read more...www.nccbuscc.org

Ministry of Prayer

Please pray for any of our parishioners who were hospitalized recently, the sick, Bea Meyer, Angela Klann, Carole Kopera, Doris Schader, the shut-in, those in nursing homes, those needing prayers, and all of the intentions written in our Book of Prayers located in the gallery. Many prayers help. If you would like to be included in the prayers, please call the parish office, 946-1177 or e-mail, louise@stjustin.net.

Prayer Line

*Please call Theresa Davison, 942-5761, to add your request to the Prayer Chain.

*You can reach the Sisters of Notre Dame prayer line at 440-279-1163.

*E-mail Lisa Stefaniak to get your request added to the prayers on line, stefaniak1@sbcglobal.net.

Praying the Rosary with My Heart

This book, by Peggy Golden (SJM Alumnus) will be available to purchase in the Parish Office. The book offers a short scripture summary and reflection on each mystery of the rosary to help lead you closer to Jesus during your family prayer time.

All proceeds of the book will be donated to Community Cenacolo located worldwide for their work with addictions through prayer and community life. Founded by Mother Elvira Petrozzi in Italy, who gave her life to God to help those individuals with addictions, at over 60 locations throughout the world, three in Florida and one in Medjugorje. The cost is $9.00. Checks can be made out to Peggy Golden.

Catholic Communication Collection

Next week our parish will take up the Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). This Collection communicates the Good News through Catholic social media activities and enriches our faith through podcasts, television, radio, and print media. Half of all proceeds remain in our diocese, so please be generous in this Collection. CCC is how the Good News gets around to you.

St. Justin Martyr Parish Library

Jesus Christus is the latest book to be added to the shelves of our Parish Library. Jesus Christus offers a series of illuminating sermons on the life of Christ that were delivered to students at Berlin University, where author Romano Guardini (1885-1968) taught. He was a mentor to such prominent theologians as Hans Urs von Balthasar and Joseph Ratzinger (Pope Benedict XVI). You are invited borrow this or any other fine book on Catholic theology and spirituality from the SJM parish library, located in the church's gallery.

Church Talk

Terms from the Catechism of the Catholic Church

FEAST DAYS: The annual cycle of liturgical celebrations commemorating the saving mysteries of Christ's life, as a participation in the Paschal Mystery, which is celebrated annually at Easter, the "Feast of feasts." Feast days commemorating Mary, the Mother of God, and the saints are also celebrated, providing the faithful with examples of those who have been glorified with Christ.

FILIOQUE: A word meaning "and (from) the Son," added to the Latin version of the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed, by which the Latin tradition of the Creed confesses that the Holy Spirit "proceeds from the Father and the Son".

PSR 2012-13

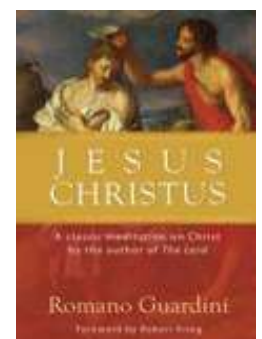

St. Justin Martyr Parish School of Religion has begun! Children whose registration forms are received hereafter will be delayed in being placed in classes and be required to pay a late fee. Forms are in the church gallery and office. If you have difficulty paying the PSR fees, please contact Charles Hunt at 440-946-3287 or simdre@gmail.com to make arrangements.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults has as its primary aim the formation of those who seek to become a disciple of Jesus and become a member of His Mystical Body, the Catholic Church. If you or someone you know are interested in joining the Catholic Church at St. Justin Martyr, please contact the RCIA coordinator, Charles Hunt at 440-946-3287 or simdre@gmail.com. RCIA sessions began Thursday, September 6. Meetings are held every Thursday at 7:00pm. It is not too late to start. The RCIA Team invites each parishioner to offer a weekly Rosary for the intention of others coming to know Christ and joining St. Justin Martyr Parish. Our prayers, example and welcoming outreach will foster growth in our parish.

Year of Faith

Pope Benedict XVI is calling all Catholics to celebrate a 'Year of Faith'. It is a call to a deeper relationship and knowledge of Christ. We are asked to pray more, study the Church's teachings more, live out our faith more, and be willing to share this faith with others. As a way to revitalize our knowledge and commitment to Christ, St. Justin Martyr will present the new 10 part series, CATHOLICISM. Offered during Advent and Lent, this breath taking and inspiring presentation will be worth the time and effort to watch and share.
