Introduction

In general sense, an appointment letter is written by the seniors to the person who they find suitable for a post for which they have given notification in newspaper or elsewhere. The letter is written after the interview, shortlisting and hiring process is done and the candidate is selected finally. This letter is very important from point of view of an employee as it will act as a confirmation of his appointment.

Appointment Letter Tips

Some tips to write a good appointment letter.

- Mention clearly the designation of the person who is hired.
- Also mention the terms and conditions in detail. Write whether the appointment is on permanence basis or on contract.
- Mention the date from which the person is supposed to join his duties.
- Also mention the date on which the letter is issued. Write that the person has to report within specified period otherwise the appointment will not be valid.
- Write the significant points in bold letters. The letter must be signed by the concerned authority, may be the highest HR person.
