FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT through the 1202 level Proficiency tests should be taken to determine placement in a language class if the student has had the language previously. Students who begin a language they have never had before must start at the 1201 level. Students whose native language is NOT English must demonstrate proficiency as well. Students who have had 3 consecutive years of the same language in high school are exempt from this requirement. Apply for exemption in COED 433. UNCC makes provisions for a student to earn semester hours of credit by taking a specially prepared exam instead of doing the normal coursework. See Language and Culture Studies Department in COED 434.		varies	_____1201____ _____1202____
