STUDENT APPLICATION
2012-2013 SCHOOL YEAR

Dear Prospective Ingenuity Student and Parents:

Thank you for your interest in the Ingenuity Project®! The Ingenuity Project®, a non-profit organization, is a joint effort of the Baltimore City Public School System, the Abell Foundation and Baltimore's science and mathematics community offering an advanced curriculum in mathematics and science.

The Ingenuity Project is offered to academically gifted city students at Roland Park Middle School #233, Mount Royal Middle School #66, and Hamilton Middle School #236. We seek highly motivated and highly capable students, who read above grade level, and have a high level of interest in mathematics and science.

The mission of the Ingenuity Project® is to prepare highly capable and motivated Baltimore students to achieve at nationally competitive levels in mathematics and science. Ingenuity offers advanced mathematics and science classes during the school day.

This application packet will provide you with all the information you need to apply to the program including application forms, deadlines, and program requirements. Should you have any questions, please attend one of our upcoming Parent Information Sessions:

APPLICANT SELECTION

To apply to the Ingenuity Project you must meet the following criteria:

- Students must be Baltimore City residents to be eligible for the Middle School program.
- Meet the following Academic Requirements:

REQUIRED ITEMS	ADMISSIONS CRITERIA
MSA Scores	MSA: Reading and Math scores in the “Proficient” or “Advanced” range (scoring a “Basic” in either of these categories will automatically deem a student “ineligible.”)
OR Other Standardized Test (2010-2011 school year)	Other Standardized Test: Total Reading and Total Math - at least in the 80 th national percentile
Report Card Grades (final for prior grade and 1 st quarter of current grade)	            Mathematics Language Arts           G’s and E’s (or A’s and B’s)  G’s and E’s (or A’s and B’s)

If you have not received notification regarding the decision to test by early February, please contact us to verify that we received your completed application. Only applicants who meet the prerequisites will be invited to take the Ingenuity Project Admissions Test. Applicants who score at least 80% on the Ingenuity Middle School Admissions Test will be considered “eligible to enroll.” All “eligible” students will be placed on an Admissions List and ranked according to Ingenuity test scores, teacher recommendations, and grades. Top-ranking applicants will be offered their first choice of school. After first-choice spaces are filled, applicants will be offered second and third choices, in Admissions List rank order, until all slots are filled. There are always more eligible applicants than available spaces. Acceptance letters will be mailed by April 1, 2012.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

The philosophy of the Ingenuity Project® is to nurture, develop and encourage the Ingenuity participant. In keeping with this philosophy, students must meet the following requirements for the duration of the program:

- Excellent attendance with no unexcused absences. This includes summer programs for Ingenuity.
- Maintain a demeanor that is respectful of fellow Ingenuity students and teachers and which honors the importance of the work. Students who do not meet attendance and behavior standards will be dismissed from the program.
- Maintain an 80 average or above in all course work. If at any time during the year an Ingenuity student is not showing consistent effort to meet the standards, the student and his/her parents will be asked to meet with the school and Ingenuity staff to assess the student’s difficulties and determine the necessary steps for improvement in academic performance. Students who are continually unable to meet the demands of the Project will not reenter the program for the subsequent year. If students withdraw or are asked to leave because they do not meet the standards, they will be assigned to regular classes.
