

Reading Log for _____ Hour _____ Quarter _____

Each Friday, fill in your log, honestly. Book here means you had it with you. If you had to go to your locker, you must write N. If you read more than one book per quarter (you can do that), you must write two blog posts per book. Four are required in one quarter. If you read more than one book, you must choose one book for your project: book talk, photo story, etc. If you abandon your book, get another right away. At some point, you simply have to finish the book you have.
