(Please have your sale consignments penned by Friday Noon, so that check-in and paint-branding can be completed. A light dinner will be served following the show. On Saturday morning following the AGM and breakfast we will host a free educational seminar on raising Dorpers, and the Sale will begin at 1 PM. There will be separate Dorpers and White Dorpers classes for registered fullblood/purebred yearling rams born between September 1, 2012 and August 31, 2013 (divided evenly by age if numbers permit), Early Fall ram lambs (Sept. & Oct. 2013), Late Fall ram lambs (Nov. & Dec. 2013), January 2014 ram lambs, Fullblood/purebred yearling ewes born between September 1, 2012 and August 31, 2013 (divided evenly by age if numbers permit), Early Fall ewe lambs, Late Fall ewe lambs, and January 2014 ewe lambs. Registered ewe lambs may be nominated for the ADSBS Youth Futurity. Commercial lots will be sifted and sorted for sale order. All consignments must be properly fitted.

WHITE DORPER CONSIGNORS PLEASE NOTE: The ADSBS Board of Directors is requiring that all White Dorpers consigned to the sale (including commercial rams and pens of ewes) be tested negative for Dematosparaxis. If both parents have tested negative, and results provided at check-in, the entry may be sold. The buyer will have 90 days to test the animal purchased, and if the test results indicate other than negative status the seller shall immediately refund the full purchase price. If you are selling ewes as exposed or bred, the service sire should also be tested, and results provided at check-in. Testing information is available through www.genecheck.com.

Each consignor may enter up to two rams. To enter a third ram, a consignor must enter two ewes. A consignor must enter two ewes for each additional ram. All sheep sell with the guarantee listed on page 2.

Minimum bids for the sale will be $300 for single lots and $175 per head on pens.
