Do you have library fines? Are you under the age of 18? Now you can ...

READ DOWN YOUR FINES!

Children can spend time reading in the library, and earn Dewey Bucks to pay overdue fines on their library cards, purchase a replacement card, or buy a book bag (15 mins. = One Dewey Buck). Dewey Bucks cannot be used to pay for lost or damaged materials.

How it works:

1. Children and teens up to age 17 can participate.
2. Sign in with a Children's staff member who will record time.
3. While in the library, they can get credit for:
 - Reading by themselves.
 - Reading to/with younger children. If children are reading to each other, both earn credit.
4. Read any print media: books, magazines or newspapers.
5. After completing 15 minutes of reading, get a Dewey Buck from a library staff member.
6. Dewey Bucks can be turned in at the Library's Check Out desk to remove overdue fines, purchase a replacement card, or buy a book bag.
7. Fines must be paid before any other purchase.
