

Dear Parents:

The Student-Parent Handbook contains very important information concerning our school's rules and regulations. I ask that you read and discuss the handbook's contents with your children. My experience is that our students are the most successful and happy when they know and understand our expectations. When reading the handbook, please pay particular attention to sections designated as "New." They contain noteworthy changes from last year.

Thank you for entrusting your children to STE for their education. If I may assist you in any way, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Michael F. Cusack, Jr. '79
Headmaster
