Hospice Documentation for the IDT:
The Big Picture

Webinar – Thursday, April 9, 2015

11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Eastern – Audio Recording Available

Hospice Providers are functioning in an environment that is focused on scrutiny of services provided to the patient. It is crucial that hospice documentation be clinically strong and technically correct as there is no shortage of auditors in today's healthcare. Hospice interdisciplinary staff needs to understand their role in documentation and how it links to the hospice organization's survival. This program will discuss strategies clinical staff can use to improve overall quality of documentation and to proactively prevent survey deficiencies and claims denials from medical review.

Program Objectives:

- Discuss strategies for improving documentation quality of the IDT;
- Discuss opportunities for hospice eligibility documentation throughout the provision of hospice care;
- Describe the importance of the hospice plan of care (POC).
