Message from Jane Herling, President

The last two years serving you as President of my beloved Har Zion Temple have been rich and rewarding. Daily, I pray that I served you well. I pray that I never missed the opportunity to greet you with a smile, and remind you how important you are to our community and to me.

There are so many people to thank. Thank you to Rabbi Rosenberg, Cantor Vogel, Gavi Miller, Rabbi Alpert, Rabbi Allen, Rabbi Marshall and Debbie Folz for your insights, hard work and concern for our community. To my co-Officers, thank you for your sacrifices of time, wisdom, guidance, devotion, patience and friendship. To our Board of Directors and Trustees, and all our volunteers, thank you for taking your obligations seriously, your

Joint Clergy Message: Contentment and Joy

Message from Rabbi Scott Rosenberg, Cantor Elliot Vogel, Rabbi Uri Allen and Rabbi Robert Alpert

Kulam Yisbe-u Ve-Yitangu Mi-tuvecha – Everyone will find contentment and joy in your goodness.

These words stand at the heart of our Shabbat morning liturgy. They describe how each individual Jew may find their personal Shabbat of joy and happiness within the communal experience. Up until now, we have worked hard to provide opportunities for prayer, study and social interaction each and every Shabbat. Through our conversations with you and through the strategic planning initiative, we have grown in our appreciation of what this should and could mean for Har Zion Temple. We are a proud community that is built on longstanding and deep-rooted traditions. We are also committed to deepening our spiritual practice through innovation and experimentation. As Conservative Jews we have always valued the pairing of tradition with change, and take seriously the need to remain anchored in our sacred heritage even as the expressions of those commitments evolve.

This past year, we have introduced instrumentation to our Friday night services, explored the role of meditation in prayer, communal text study, breaks for snacks and socializing, changes of prayer space and seating configuration. Through your engagement and response to all of these, the clergy team has had conversations about the next best steps to advance our spiritual exploration and growth. To provide our community with the firm anchor to which we have grown accustomed, our sanctuary service on Shabbat morning will continue in its current form and will be led by Cantor Vogel and one of our Rabbis. Additionally, babysitting will continue every week beginning at 9:30 AM and Tot Shabbat every other week at its usual time.

Our Junior Congregation services, led by Norman Einhorn, will continue on a bi-weekly basis with the alternating weeks featuring a new family service led by Rabbi Allen. This service will follow the basic outlines of the Shabbat morning liturgy and will contain joyous singing and instrumentation, storytelling, snack time, Parshat Hashavua activities and much more!

Noise is encouraged and families of all ages are welcome.

Twice a month Rabbi Allen will be conducting a learning service whose aim is to uncover the meaning in our siddur towards deeper appreciation and understanding of our tefilah. This service will be part text study, part communal singing, part experimentation laboratory. No previous prayer knowledge or experience required. This service will conclude by 10:30 AM. At 10:45 AM, Parshah study will be offered by a rotating group of our clergy. Refreshments will be served.

Additionally, opposite the weeks of Junior Congregation, our teens will take ownership of their Shabbat morning service. Rabbi Marshall and Norman Einhorn will serve as their guides as they craft a peer-led Shabbat morning experience.

Every week, all of these Shabbat morning offerings will converge so that the community can enjoy one Kiddush together.

On Friday night we are also offering a new model. We will begin the second Shabbat of each month with an instrumental Kabbalat Shabbat and Maariv Service. Recognizing that the inclusion of instruments at a Shabbat service is not comfortable for all, we are committed to supporting more traditional prayer options on those weeks should there be sufficient interest. Planning is in process to create new young family opportunities on Friday night, as well.

One of the important messages that we took away from our strategic planning process is that our members want opportunities to joyously come together as a community to engage in the richness of Judaism and all it has to offer. We see this new model (Sample month is below) as a path that will keep us growing and celebrating together with deeper meaning and greater joy. As we begin down this new road, we know you will join us so that each of us can feel the goodness and contentment of Shabbat together.

Memorial for Vladimir Slepak

Tuesday, June 16, 7:30 PM

Vladimir (Volodya) Slepak passed away in April.

The Philadelphia community will gather to honor his memory and say thank you to this giant of a man. Vladimir was the heart and soul of the Soviet Jewry movement, and was recognized as the "father of the movement."

He and his wife Masha finally arrived in Israel after 17 years of waiting. When he arrived he said, "It is not my individual accomplishment to be here. It is the fight of the Jewish people everywhere. I am a simple Jew with a simple strength."

Let's come together to honor this simple, great man.

All are welcome.

Light reception to follow.

generosity, and keeping your sights on our ultimate purpose. Thank you to all the educators and staff who not only supported me, but support each of us and our families, every day. To my darling husband, Irv, and our beautiful family, who promised to support me and respect my commitment, and did, day in and day out, thank you.

I also want to thank all of our B'nai Mitzvah in the last two years. You challenged me to study Torah as I never have before, and understand our weekly parshiot in ways that truly moved my soul and changed the way I live. The blessings you shared with me cannot be measured.

Thank you to all the members of Har Zion for the countless smiles, smooches, hand-shakes, hugs, fist-bumps, laughs, whispers and tears that you shared with me. I pray that you felt how much I care about you.

As I pass the leadership baton, I am mindful of how much I have learned, and how important it is for all our members and their families to feel valued and essential to the whole. I pledge to our incoming leadership team to do my best to support them, and help ensure that our beautiful community continues to evolve in healthy, Jewishly-dynamic and holy ways.

Thank you to all for wonderful memories to last a lifetime. Thank you for your confidence and trust. I am humbled, and I am grateful.

See you on Shabbat!

HAZAAC Har Zion Active Adults Club

Age-Old Paradox

By Gerald Spector

There is an age-old paradox that Har Zion Active Adults Club (HAZAAC) members and those eligible for membership face. Everyone desires long life. Having many birthdays is highly desirable. At birthday celebrations we wish the honoree to have many more birthdays. In the science fiction series Star Trek, Mr. Spock's favorite expression of friendship was "Live long and prosper." In Jewish tradition we say "May you live to 120."

Although attaining advanced age is considered a blessing, getting old is not. "Old" connotes diminished vitality and loss of vigor. People are offended if they are told they are getting old or they look older. And so we have the age-old paradox; age is good, old is bad.

Har Zion Active Adults Club offers a solution to this paradox. Each HAZAAC event includes a delicious wholesome meal to nourish the body and entertaining and educational programs to stimulate the mind. Our next event will be in October. Please join us then when we will all have advanced our age by a third of a year and grown four months older. Until then, have an enjoyable and healthy summer.

Har Zion's Finest Is Honored at Saunders House

Maxine Waxman received the well-deserved honor of being Saunders House Volunteer of the Year after Shabbat services on April 17. Maxine has been volunteering at Saunders House for the past 15 years. Initially Maxine assisted Doris Grossmann who leads the weekly Friday afternoon Shabbat services. For the past few years, Maxine has taken a more active role in not only Shabbat services, but also in the planning and preparation of holiday celebrations. In addition to being "on call" to lead a service in a pinch, Maxine is responsible for purchase and delivery of the weekly challot in addition to the specialty foods ordered for Rosh Hashanah, Tu B'Shevat, Purim, Pesah and Sukkot.

celebration

Maxine offers her warm and loving personal touches and makes certain that every holiday is one of beauty for each of the residents. She extends the extra effort to welcome and lend an ear to each client, causing them to feel engaged and connected. In the past year or so, Maxine has coordinated with Rabbi Marshall in having the Hebrew school students make gifts for the Saunders' residents to use personally or to decorate their rooms. In doing so, the residents feel like they live in a more home-like environment in addition to feeling more valued.

Through Maxine's rachmaunes, she has improved the quality of life of many seniors, people who are acutely ill and folks who are chronically ill as well. Maxine, we are all so proud and grateful for the selfless and heartfelt work that you do!!

SISTERHOOD . . .

Contribute to Bimah Flowers with Sisterhood Floral Fund

Message from Debbie Golden, Sisterhood Co-President

After many months of preparation, Sisterhood is proud to announce the introduction of our updated floral fund cards. Proceeds from the sale of the cards pay for Bimah flowers every week. The updated cards showcase the beautiful artistry of Sisterhood member Gloria Fraimow's mother, Clara Lafair (z"l). Gloria has always supported the Sisterhood and donated the use of her mother's paintings and the printing. The newly printed cards depict two lovely floral still life paintings à la the early 20th Century School of Paris, and are appropriate for honoring and remembering friends and family. These cards are available immediately. The price is $10 for one card or buy them by the pack of three cards for $20. Please contact Emily Schwartz if you would like to send a card. She can be reached at emilyruth@gmail.com.

It has been a very good year for Sisterhood programming. We started with the Opening Barbeque, complete with s'mores and singing oldies around the campfire, and ended with a very successful and enlightening "Open a Book... Open Your Mind" week. This year's educational and general meeting programming has been better attended than ever and our fundraising through Open a Book, Mishloah Manot, the Landau Gift Box, Torah Fund, and other projects continues. We also nourished our spirituality with our wonderful Sisterhood Shabbat, a davening workshop, and monthly Rosh Chodesh meetings. Norma and I thank our Board and the many women who volunteer their time and energy to organize and produce these events and fundraising efforts.

My goal for next year is to focus on hesed – the attribute of grace, compassion and kindness. Hesed is a value central to Jewish ethics and theology. Sisterhood is very good at performing acts of kindness, but, occasionally we fall short in our dealings with each other. Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sachs has written that: Judaism is a sustained meditation on the power of words to heal or harm, mend or destroy. Just as God created the world with words, so we create, and can destroy, relationships with words.

Though our acts of charity and work within our organization may be well done, insensitive words can destroy the Sisterhood that we seek to create. Let us embrace the goal of being more compassionate in our dealings with each other as we work to make our Sisterhood vital and relevant.

Norma and I wish you all a warm, wonderful summer.

MEN'S CLUB . . .

Har Zion Men's Club
We've Got It Covered

The Odd Couple and the Wise Men

By Doug Sayer, Men's Club Co-President

Wow, it is June and almost a year has passed subsequent to the Men's Club amending the by-laws to permit co-presidents.

Jack and I, the co-presidents, are so different. Some of you may know that I am the President of Colliers International, a commercial real estate brokerage firm, and Jack aka "Nature Jack," is an educator, who endeavors to develop interest in science among very young children.

Although we are so different, what we do have in common is our commitment to Har Zion and the development of the Men's Club from the legacy we received from past presidents Roy Stander, Dr. Steve Moskowitz, and Gary Novick. There were also officers and many others who supported the election of what I deem to be the "Odd Couple," including Morris Kurtzman, Dr. David Maltz, Larry Brown, and Gene Levick.

Hey, were these guys crazy to elect us? Were they really crazy or were they the "wise men" who were going to guide the "Odd Couple?" So, with unwavering support from the "wise men," we launched the new regime being led by the "Odd Couple."

As a result, we kicked off the new year with our opening event back in September. We were delighted with the overwhelming success with over 50 attendees. This was followed by excursions to the National Museum of American Jewish History to view the exhibit "Jews in Baseball" and next the "Tour de Shuls," a bicycle event to support Camp Ramah and some good family exercise.

Our golf outing in October was attended by 45 golfers. The "Odd Couple" had not participated in past golf outings but were told that this was a great turnout. The year continued with a few "pub night" gatherings. We were also honored to host a variety of interesting speakers and authors including Rabbi Porath, Louis Greenstein, David Barol, Rabbi Fuchs, and others.

Men's Club Shabbat weekend far exceeded our expectations.... So fortunate to have the "wise men" in the wings! We grossly underestimated the number that would attend the Friday dinner. We told the caterer to expect 50. It turned out there were more than 100 and hardly room for more tables. As I recall, we spilled out into the hall. (Unfortunately many Har Zion members forgot to RSVP, my wife commented "Imagine that," with a grin.)

Nonfiction

"Hans and Rudolf: The true story of the German Jew who tracked down and caught the Kommandant of Auschwitz" by Thomas Harding.

"This important and moving book describes the unlikely intersection of two very different lives - that of Hanns Alexander, the son of a prosperous German family in Berlin who became a refugee in London in the 1930s and Rudolf Höss, the Kommandant of the Auschwitz Concentration Camp. Well-researched and grippingly written it provides a unique insight into the fate of Germany under National Socialism." EDUCATION . . .

Reflections

Message from

Rabbi Nogah Marshall, Educational Director

Sometimes the lessons one learns in life stem not from the classroom or from our teachers, rather the best lessons in life are learned through experience.

Over the course of the past nine years Har Zion Temple has been part of my everyday life. I know that the majority of these moments were and are the shehechyanu moments. Moments that allow us to hear God's voice and instruction, experience sacredness, holiness, and specialness. Moments such as morning minyan, B'nai Mitzvah celebrations, the Purim Shpiel, Scholar in Residence programming, model Sedarim, and baby namings.

God tells us, "You shall be holy, for I, the Lord your God, am holy." For the past nine years as the Educational Director, I have tried to instill in the lives of my students of all ages a sense of holiness, a sense of kedushah through Jewish text, uplifting and informative life experiences, and a nurturing community rooted in Jewish values and Mitzvot. And throughout life, we experience triumphs and victories, and sometimes failures and disappointments. But for some of us, the Promised Land remains just that, a promise. But sometimes just the journey itself is worthwhile and affirming. And I truly believe we have taken one step closer to reaching the Promised Land.

As we get ready to go on summer vacations, what I hope we carry with us as a plan for the coming year is my optimism in our future. I am excited to continue thinking outside the box in creating a culture and environment in which we will not be afraid to dream new dreams; to realize those dreams and dream even more dreams that brings a sense of kedushah into each and every one of our lives.

And as I reflect upon this year, together I would like to take this opportunity to offer up some words of thanks to three special hard working women who are completing their terms: Michele Perlstein, Youth Committee Chair, Dorene Karasick, the Vice President of Education and Youth and Michele Levin, the Vice President of Religious Affairs and Adult Education. Thank you for your vision, dedication and commitment to Har Zion Temple and the Jewish community. It has been a pleasure working and learning with you.

As Rabbi Tarfun, in Pirkei Avot teaches, Lo Eleicha Ham-lacha Ligmor, V'lo Atah Ben Horin Levatel Mimena. "You are not obliged to finish the task but neither are you free to neglect it." No, we as Jewish people have not yet reached the Promised Land. We have not finished our task as a Jewish people or here at Har Zion Temple, but I am confident that we have the skills to continue enriching the lives of Har Zion Temple with kedushah.

Have a wonderful summer and I look forward to another year filled with kedushah.

Youth Update

USY has had an incredibly busy year. We collected bins of food for the Mitzvah food pantry during the high holidays. We bonded over Mini-golf, Laser Tag, Death by Chocolate and live performances by our very own at Aroma Coffeehouse. We are looking forward to everyone joining us at our closing event of the year on Sunday, June 7, a day at Hershey Park. Bring your friends and enjoy the day riding roller coasters and eating chocolate! I am looking forward to a restful summer and seeing you all in the fall.

The ABC's of Parenthood

Message from

Debbie Folz, Early Childhood Education Director

As our school year at The Noreen Cook Center for Early Childhood Education comes to an close and our camp season at Har Zion Day Camp is just about to begin, I want to share with you the ABC's of Parenthood.

Always find some time exclusively for your children each day.

Broaden their horizons through varied experiences.

Challenge them to set and achieve high goals in life.

Delight in their efforts in school and at home.

Examine your approach so as to keep it loving.

Find something good to say about your children each day.

Guide them in their decisions.

Have a listening ear for their problems and concerns.

Insure that you pay attention to their fears.

Joyfully forgive their shortcomings.

Keep their confidence.

Live a life that serves as a positive model.

Manage your time as to make them your best friend.

Never say "no" when you might be able to say "yes."

Open your home to their friends.

Protect them from their own inexperience.

Quickly show interest in their endeavors.

Remember that they have needs to be met.

Show them love.

Teach them to treat others as they want to be treated.

Understand they are young and learning to adjust.

Very carefully, mean what you say.

Watch them grow and appreciate each stage.

X-pect them to follow rules.

Yield to your child's preferences, if it isn't against a principle.

Zealously help your children to enjoy life."

Enjoy your summer and remember the importance of taking time to appreciate each and every moment in the life of your family!

if Rabbi Rosenberg approved of my sermon!

Food we know is part of our tradition. We were fortunate to enjoy two different cooking exhibitions, one for preparing latkes and the other for matzo brie, each timely relating to their respective holidays. Both were conducted by our favorite chefs Rabbi Alpert and Dr. Joe Carver. Yum!

Each year you should receive yellow Yom Hashoah candles which are paid for, packaged and distributed by the Men's Club. We also support and invite the Har Zion community to join us on Friday mornings for minyan and breakfast, followed by a discussion with Rabbi Rosenberg.

Sports are also part of our program, featuring the golf outing, an excursion to a Phillies game, a Super Bowl party, and our own Har Zion softball team led by Josh Klein.

Now, as this season comes to a close we invite interested men to join the Men's Club led by the "Odd Couple" under the supervision of the "wise men."

According to Jewish law, every Jew is obligated to give Tzedakah (i.e. charity). It is traditional to give Tzedakah in memory of loved one, when we receive a synagogue honor, or when we have a simha (joyous experience). Making a contribution to any of the funds listed is a wonderful way to honor family, friends or to share the joy of a simha.
