

THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL IS FOR USE ONLY IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PLAN OF ARRANGEMENT INVOLVING CANADIAN PHOENIX RESOURCES CORP., CANADIAN PHOENIX ACQUISITION CORP., RENEGADE PETROLEUM LTD., THE SHAREHOLDERS OF CANADIAN PHOENIX RESOURCES CORP. AND THE SECURITYHOLDERS OF CANADIAN PHOENIX ACQUISITION CORP.

THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL MUST BE VALIDLY COMPLETED, DULY EXECUTED AND RETURNED TO THE DEPOSITARY, COMPUTERSHARE INVESTOR SERVICES INC. IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU VALIDLY COMPLETE, DULY EXECUTE AND RETURN THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL ON A TIMELY BASIS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS CONTAINED BELOW.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

FOR HOLDERS OF COMMON SHARES OF CANADIAN PHOENIX RESOURCES CORP.

Please read the Instructions set out below carefully before completing this Letter of Transmittal.

TO: CANADIAN PHOENIX RESOURCES CORP.
AND TO: COMPUTERSHARE INVESTOR SERVICES INC., AS DEPOSITARY AND TO: RENEGADE PETROLEUM LTD.

This letter of transmittal ("Letter of Transmittal") is for use by registered holders ("Canadian Phoenix Shareholders") of common shares ("Canadian Phoenix Common Shares") in the capital of Canadian Phoenix Resources Corp. ("Canadian Phoenix") in connection with the proposed arrangement (the "Arrangement") involving Canadian Phoenix, Canadian Phoenix Acquisition Corp. ("AcquisitionCo"), Renegade Petroleum Ltd. ("Renegade"), the Canadian Phoenix Shareholders and the securityholders of AcquisitionCo pursuant to an arrangement agreement dated October 29, 2012 between Renegade, Canadian Phoenix and AcquisitionCo (the "Arrangement Agreement"), the full text of which is set out in Appendix "B" to the management information circular ("Information Circular") of Canadian Phoenix dated November 16, 2012. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Letter of Transmittal have the meanings given to them in the Information Circular.

Pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement, upon becoming effective, each one (1) issued and outstanding Canadian Phoenix Common Share, other than those held by Dissenting Shareholders, shall be deemed to be exchanged for one (1) Canadian Phoenix New Common Share and one (1) Canadian Phoenix New Preferred Share, which one (1) Canadian Phoenix New Preferred Share shall be subsequently exchanged for 0.5985 of a Renegade Share. No fractional Renegade Shares will be issued to Canadian Phoenix Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement. If a Canadian Phoenix Shareholder is otherwise entitled to a fractional Renegade Share, the number of Renegade Shares to be issued to that Canadian Phoenix Shareholder will be rounded to the nearest whole Renegade Share. In calculating such fractional interests, all Canadian Phoenix Common Shares registered in the name of or beneficially held by such former Canadian Phoenix Shareholder or their nominee shall be aggregated.

In order for this Letter of Transmittal to be validly completed, the undersigned is required to complete each of the steps indicated below that are applicable to it. Beneficial holders of Canadian Phoenix Common Shares whose Canadian Phoenix Common Shares are registered in the name of a broker, investment dealer, bank, trust company, depositary or other nominee should contact that nominee for instructions and assistance in delivering those Canadian Phoenix Common Shares to Computershare Investor Services Inc. ("Depositary") along with a duly completed Letter of Transmittal.

There are important tax consequences regarding the exchange of Canadian Phoenix Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement. Canadian Phoenix Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors about the applicable Canadian and/or United States federal, provincial, state and local tax consequences of the Arrangement.

STEP 1: DESCRIBE THE CANADIAN PHOENIX COMMON SHARES BEING DEPOSITED

The undersigned delivers to you the enclosed certificate(s) representing Canadian Phoenix Common Shares to be exchanged under the Arrangement, as further described in the Information Circular.

DESCRIPTION OF CERTIFICATES DEPOSITED
Certificate Number(s) Or indicate “DRS” for Canadian Phoenix Common Shares held in an Uncertificated Position	Name in which Canadian Phoenix Common Shares are Registered	Number of Canadian Phoenix Common Shares Deposited
TOTAL:

(If space is not sufficient, please attach a signed list in the above form.)

Some or all of my Canadian Phoenix Common Share certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed. Please review Instruction 7 for the procedure to replace lost or destroyed certificates. (Check box if applicable.)

If you received a Direct Registration Statement/Advice (“DRS”) representing your Canadian Phoenix Common Shares, you will not have a certificate to deposit. Indicate DRS under description of certificates deposited.

STEP 2: REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS OF THE DEPOSITING CANADIAN PHOENIX SHAREHOLDER

The undersigned:

1. acknowledges receipt of the Information Circular;
2. represents and warrants that the undersigned is the legal owner of the above listed Canadian Phoenix Common Shares and has good title to the rights represented by the above mentioned certificates, free and clear of all liens, charges, encumbrances, claims and equities and together with all rights and benefits, and has full power and authority to deliver such certificates;
3. represents and warrants that the undersigned has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Letter of Transmittal and that the information provided herein is true, accurate and complete as of the date hereof;
4. represents and warrants that it is a resident in the jurisdiction set out in “Address of Canadian Phoenix Shareholder” on page 7 of this Letter of Transmittal;
5. acknowledges that if the Arrangement is approved at the Meeting, unless the Arrangement is not subsequently completed, the deposit of Canadian Phoenix Common Shares pursuant to this Letter of Transmittal is irrevocable;
6. directs the Depository to issue or cause to be issued the Canadian Phoenix New Common Share certificate(s) (or DRS as applicable) and Renegade Share certificate(s) (or DRS as applicable) to which the undersigned is entitled on completion of the Arrangement in the name indicated below, and to send such certificate(s) to the address, or hold the same for pickup, as indicated below;
7. covenants and agrees to execute, upon request, any additional documents, transfers and other assurances as may be necessary or desirable to complete the exchange of certificate(s) representing Canadian Phoenix Common Shares for Canadian Phoenix New Common Share certificate(s) and Renegade Share certificate(s);
8. acknowledges that the issuance of Canadian Phoenix New Preferred Shares and subsequent exchange for Renegade Shares are steps in the Plan of Arrangement and that no certificate(s) representing Canadian Phoenix New Preferred Shares will be issued or delivered;
9. acknowledges that all authority conferred or agreed to be conferred by the undersigned herein may be exercised during any subsequent legal incapacity of the undersigned and shall survive the death or incapacity, bankruptcy or insolvency of the undersigned and all obligations of the undersigned herein shall be binding upon the heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns of the undersigned;
10. by virtue of execution of this Letter of Transmittal, shall be deemed to have agreed that all questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including timely receipt) and acceptance of any Canadian Phoenix Common Shares deposited pursuant to the Arrangement will be determined by Canadian Phoenix and Renegade in their sole discretion and that such determination shall be final and binding and acknowledges there shall be no duty or obligation on Canadian Phoenix, Renegade, AcquisitionCo, the Depository or any other person to give notice of any defect or irregularity and no liability shall be incurred by any of them for failure to give such notice;
11. acknowledges that Canadian Phoenix, Renegade or AcquisitionCo may be required to disclose certain personal information in respect of the undersigned. The personal information of the undersigned may be disclosed by Canadian Phoenix, Renegade or AcquisitionCo to, and may be used by: (i) stock exchanges or security regulatory authorities; (ii) the Depository; and (iii) any other parties involved in the Arrangement; and

12. acknowledges that the representations, warranties and covenants given by it in this Letter of Transmittal shall survive the completion of the Arrangement.

Unless otherwise indicated under “Special Registration Instructions” or “Special Delivery Instructions” on the next page (in which case registration or delivery should be made in accordance with those instructions), the Canadian Phoenix New Common Share certificate(s) and the Renegade Share certificate(s) will be issued in the name of the undersigned and forwarded to the undersigned at the address specified below the signature of the undersigned (or if no such address or delivery instructions are made, to the latest address of record on Canadian Phoenix’s share register). If the Arrangement is not completed and the Arrangement Agreement is terminated or Canadian Phoenix, Renegade or AcquisitionCo terminates its obligations under the Arrangement Agreement, the Depositary will return the enclosed certificate(s) to the address specified in accordance with the instructions in the preceding sentence.

If applicable, Canadian Phoenix shall, or shall direct the Depositary to, make all withholdings from the consideration payable to holders of Canadian Phoenix Common Shares required under applicable laws, including the Income Tax Act (Canada) and all applicable provincial and foreign legislation, and including in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan of Arrangement.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Use of Letter of Transmittal

- (a) This Letter of Transmittal (or a manually executed facsimile copy hereof) validly completed and duly executed as required by the instructions set forth below, together with accompanying certificate(s) representing the Canadian Phoenix Common Shares and all other documents required by the terms of the Arrangement and this Letter of Transmittal must be received by the Depository at any of its offices specified on the back page of this document.
- (b) The method used to deliver this Letter of Transmittal and any accompanying certificate(s) representing Canadian Phoenix Common Shares and all other required documents is at the option and risk of the person depositing the same, and delivery will be deemed effective only when such documents are actually received by the Depository. It is recommended that the necessary documentation be hand delivered to the Depository at one of its offices specified on the back page of this document and a receipt be obtained. However, if such documents are mailed, it is recommended that registered mail be used and that proper insurance be obtained. Canadian Phoenix Shareholders whose Canadian Phoenix Common Shares are registered in the name of a nominee should contact their broker, investment dealer, bank, trust company or other registered holder for assistance in depositing those Canadian Phoenix Common Shares.

2. Special Registration and Delivery Instructions

The box entitled “Special Registration Instructions” should be completed if the Canadian Phoenix New Common Share certificate(s) and Renegade Share certificate(s) to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement are to be registered in the name of a person other than the person signing this Letter of Transmittal. The box entitled “Special Delivery Instructions” should be completed if the Canadian Phoenix New Common Share certificate(s) and Renegade Share certificate(s) to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement are to be: (a) sent to someone other than the person signing this Letter of Transmittal; or (b) sent to the person signing this Letter of Transmittal at an address other than that appearing below that person’s signature. If either box is completed, the signature on the Letter of Transmittal must be guaranteed. See Instruction 4 below.

3. Signatures

This Letter of Transmittal must be validly completed and duly signed by the holder of Canadian Phoenix Common Shares (or by such holder’s duly authorized representative in accordance with Instruction 5 below).

- (a) If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered owner(s) of the accompanying certificate(s) or DRS statement, such signature(s) on this Letter of Transmittal must correspond with the name(s) as registered or as written on the face of such certificate(s) or on the DRS statement without any change whatsoever, and the certificate(s) need not be endorsed. If such transmitted certificate(s) are owned of record by two or more joint owners, all joint owners must sign the Letter of Transmittal.
- (b) If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by a person other than the registered owner(s) of the Canadian Phoenix Common Shares or if the Canadian Phoenix New Common Shares and Renegade Shares are to be issued to a person other than the registered holder(s):
 - (i) such deposited certificate(s) or DRS statement must be endorsed or be accompanied by an appropriate share transfer power of attorney duly and properly completed by the registered owner(s); and

- (ii) the signature(s) on such endorsement or power of attorney must correspond exactly to the name(s) of the registered owner(s) as registered or as appearing on the certificate(s) or DRS statement and must be guaranteed as noted in Instruction 4.

4. Guarantee of Signatures

If this Letter of Transmittal is executed by a person other than the registered owner(s) of the Canadian Phoenix Common Shares, or if the Canadian Phoenix New Common Shares and Renegade Shares are to be issued to a person other than the registered holder(s) or are to be sent to an address other than the address of the registered holder(s) as shown on the register of Canadian Phoenix Common Shares maintained by Canadian Phoenix's transfer agent, such signature must be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution, or in some other manner satisfactory to the Depository (except that no guarantee is required if the signature is that of an Eligible Institution).

An "Eligible Institution" means a Canadian Schedule 1 chartered bank, a member of the Securities Transfer Agent Medallion Program (STAMP), a member of the Stock Exchange Medallion Program (SEMP) or a member of the New York Stock Exchange Inc. Medallion Signature Program (MSP). Members of these programs are usually members of a recognized stock exchange in Canada or the United States, members of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada, members of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority or banks or trust companies in the United States.

5. Fiduciaries, Representatives and Authorizations

Where this Letter of Transmittal or any certificate or share transfer or power of attorney is executed by a person as an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, attorney-in-fact or agent or on behalf of a corporation, partnership or association or is executed by any other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, this Letter of Transmittal must be accompanied by satisfactory evidence of the authority to act. Canadian Phoenix, Renegade and the Depository, at their discretion, may require additional evidence of authority or additional documentation.

6. Miscellaneous

- (a) If the space on this Letter of Transmittal is insufficient to list all certificates for Canadian Phoenix Common Shares, additional certificate numbers and number of Canadian Phoenix Common Shares may be included on a separate signed list affixed to this Letter of Transmittal.
- (b) If Canadian Phoenix Common Shares are registered in different forms (e.g. "John Doe" and "J. Doe"), a separate Letter of Transmittal should be completed for each different registration.
- (c) No alternative, conditional or contingent deposits will be accepted. All depositing shareholders by execution of this Letter of Transmittal (or a copy thereof) waive any right to receive any notice by the Depository.
- (d) The holder of the Canadian Phoenix Common Shares covered by this Letter of Transmittal hereby unconditionally and irrevocably attorns to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Alberta and the courts of appeal therefrom.
- (e) Additional copies of the Letter of Transmittal may be obtained on request and without charge from the Depository at any of its offices at the addresses listed on the back page of this document.

7. Lost or Destroyed Certificates

If a share certificate has been lost or destroyed, this Letter of Transmittal should be completed as fully as possible and forwarded, together with a letter describing the loss, to the Depository so that the Depository may provide replacement instructions. The replacement certificate must be received by the Depository prior to the Depository issuing the consideration to which such Canadian Phoenix Shareholder is entitled to receive under the Arrangement. If a share certificate has been lost or destroyed, please ensure that you provide your daytime telephone number to the Depository and Canadian Phoenix so that they may contact you.

8. Extinguishment of Rights

Any certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding Canadian Phoenix Common Shares that were exchanged pursuant to the Arrangement, if it has not been surrendered with all other instruments required by this Letter of Transmittal on or prior to the last business day prior to the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, shall cease to represent a claim or interest of any kind or nature against Canadian Phoenix or Renegade. In such circumstances, the person ultimately entitled to any certificate or cash amount hereunder shall be deemed to have surrendered such entitlement to Canadian Phoenix, Renegade or AcquisitionCo, or their successor entities, as applicable, together with all entitlement to dividends, distributions and cash thereon held for such former holder for no consideration.

9. Defects or Irregularities

Any defect or irregularity made by a Canadian Phoenix Shareholder pursuant to this Letter of Transmittal will, subject to the discretion of Canadian Phoenix, invalidate this Letter of Transmittal and, as a result thereof, will mean that the Canadian Phoenix Shareholder will not receive the certificates (or DRS as applicable) representing Canadian Phoenix New Common Shares and Renegade Common Shares to which such holder is entitled pursuant to the Arrangement until a properly completed Letter of Transmittal is ultimately received. Canadian Phoenix reserves the right in its absolute discretion to instruct the Depository to waive any defect or irregularity contained in any Letter of Transmittal received by it.

10. Privacy Notice from Computershare Investor Services Inc.

Computershare is committed to protecting your personal information. In the course of providing services to you and our corporate clients, we receive non-public personal information about you from transactions we perform for you, forms you send us, other communications we have with you or your representatives, etc. This information could include your name, address, social insurance number, securities holdings and other financial information. We use this to administer your account, to better serve you and our clients' needs and for other lawful purposes relating to our services. Some of your information may be transferred to servicers in the U.S.A. for data processing and/or storage. We have prepared a Privacy Code to tell you more about our information practices, how your privacy is protected and how to contact our Chief Privacy Officer. It is available at our website, computershare.com, or by writing us at 100 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1. Computershare will use the information you are providing in order to process your request and will treat your signature(s) as your consent to us so doing.

11. Tax Information for U.S. Shareholders

To prevent backup withholding on any payment made to a U.S. Shareholder (or person acting on behalf of a U.S. Shareholder) with respect to the Canadian Phoenix Common Shares, you are required, if you are a U.S. person (as defined below), to notify us of your current U.S. taxpayer identification number, or TIN (or the TIN of the person on whose behalf you are acting), by completing an Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form W-9 (which is enclosed herein) as described more fully below. If you are a U.S. Shareholder that is not a U.S. person but provides a mailing address in the United States, you may be required to furnish an IRS Form W-8 to avoid backup withholding, which may be obtained by contacting the Depository or from the IRS website (www.irs.gov).

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Amounts withheld are creditable against the U.S. Shareholder's regular U.S. federal income tax liability, and any amount overwithheld generally will be refundable to the U.S. Shareholder if the U.S. Shareholder timely files an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS.

Each U.S. Shareholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor to determine whether such holder is required to furnish an IRS Form W-9, is exempt from backup withholding and information reporting, or is required to furnish an IRS Form W-8.

You are a U.S. person if you are, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (1) a citizen or a resident of the United States (including a U.S. resident alien), (2) a partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States (or any state thereof, including the District of Columbia), (3) an estate whose income is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source, or (4) a trust if a U.S. court can exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more U.S. persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust (or certain other electing trusts).

Each tendering U.S. person is required to provide a correct TIN and certain other information on an IRS Form W-9 (which is enclosed herein) and to certify that the TIN provided is correct (or that such U.S. person is awaiting a TIN) and that (a) the U.S. person has not been notified by the IRS that the U.S. person is subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, (b) the IRS has notified the U.S. person that the U.S. person is no longer subject to backup withholding or (c) the U.S. person is an exempt recipient.

The TIN is generally the U.S. person's U.S. Social Security number or the U.S. federal employer identification number. The U.S. person is required to furnish the TIN of the registered owner of the Canadian Phoenix Common Shares. The general instructions to the enclosed IRS Form W-9 explain the proper certification to use if the Canadian Phoenix Common Shares are registered in more than one name or are not registered in the name of the actual owner. The U.S. person may write "Applied For" on the IRS Form W-9 if the tendering U.S. person has not been issued a TIN and had applied for a TIN or intends to apply for a TIN in the near future. If the U.S. person writes "Applied For" on the TIN line of the IRS Form W-9 and does not provide a TIN by the time of payment, such U.S. person may be subject to backup withholding on such payments.

Certain U.S. persons are not subject to these backup withholding and reporting requirements. See the general instructions to the enclosed IRS Form W-9 for additional instructions.

Failure to provide the required information on the IRS Form W-9 may subject the tendering U.S. person to a US$50 penalty imposed by the IRS and backup withholding on any payment. More serious penalties may be imposed for providing false information which, if willfully done, may result in fines and/or imprisonment.

U.S. Shareholders that are not U.S. persons but provide a mailing address in the United States may be required to file an IRS Form W-8BEN or other appropriate IRS Form W-8. You may obtain the appropriate IRS Form W-8 by contacting the Depository or from the IRS's website (www.irs.gov). A failure to properly complete and furnish the appropriate IRS Form W-8 may result in backup withholding.

United States Internal Revenue Service Circular 230 Notice: To ensure compliance with Internal Revenue Service Circular 230, U.S. Shareholders are hereby notified that: (i) any discussion of United States federal tax issues contained or referred to in this Letter of Transmittal or in any document referred to herein is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used by U.S. Shareholders for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on them under the United States Internal Revenue Code; (ii) such discussion is written for use in connection with the promotion or marketing of the transactions or matters addressed herein; and (iii) U.S. Shareholders should seek advice based on their particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a “saving clause.” Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called “backup withholding.” Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the “Name” line. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as (DBA)” name on the “Business name/disregarded entity name” line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the “Name” line and any business, trade, or “doing business as (DBA) name” on the “Business name/disregarded entity name” line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the “Name” line. The name of the entity entered on the “Name” line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the “Name” line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the “Name” line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the “Business name/disregarded entity name” line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the “Name” line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the “Name” line is an LLC, check the “Limited liability company” box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter “P” for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter “C” for C corporation or “S” for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the “Name” line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the “Name” line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
 2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
 3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
 4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
 5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.
- Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:
6. A corporation,
 7. A foreign central bank of issue,
 8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
 9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
 10. A real estate investment trust,
 11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
 12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
 13. A financial institution,
 14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
 15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 ²

² However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

¹ List first and circle the name of the person whose number you furnish. If only one person on a joint account has an SSN, that person's number must be furnished.

² Circle the minor's name and furnish the minor's SSN.

³ You must show your individual name and you may also enter your business or "DBA" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity" name line. You may use either your SSN or EIN (if you have one), but the IRS encourages you to use your SSN.

⁴ List first and circle the name of the trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the TIN of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.) Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

*Note. Grantor also must provide a Form W-9 to trustee of trust.

Note. If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
