

CRIME PREVENTION THROUGH ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN

“CPTED 101” For the Street Cop

Learn the basics to help citizens reduce crime opportunities through natural surveillance, mechanical installations, maintenance and proper use of specified areas (homes, businesses, schools, etc).

WHEN: March 17 OR March 18, 2016
8am to 4:30pm

WHERE: Puyallup Police Department, Training Room
311 W. Pioneer, Puyallup
Register TODAY, space is limited!

COST: FREE

PRESENTED BY: Doug Reynolds, King County Deputy (Retired)

Master's Degrees in Public Administration and Adult Clinical Psychology

Certified Protection Professional (CPP), American Society of Industrial Security

Crime Prevention Specialist (CPS), International Society of Crime Prevention Practitioners

Member of the International CPTED Association

CPTED 101 for the Street Cop

Today's Date: _____

Session Choice: (check one) _____ March 17, 2016 OR _____ March 18, 2016

Name: (please print) _____

Agency: _____ Title: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Email Address: _____

Office Phone #: _____ Cell #: _____ FAX #: _____

Please Submit this registration to: ATTN: Kari Lucey, Training Coordinator
Puyallup Police Department
311 W. Pioneer, Puyallup, WA 98371

Email: klucey@ci.puyallup.wa.us Fax: (253) 770-3362

Questions? (253) 840-6670 or (253) 841-5531