

In just nine years, Iowa Central Head Women's Coach Craig Carlson's Lady Tritons have won 227 games. The 2013-2014 team compiled a 26-6 record and finished 2nd in the NJCAA Region XI Tournament. With a strong core of the players returning, Coach Carlson's Iowa Central program has high hopes for a stellar 2014-15, as well. Coach Carlson and assistant, Jordon O'Brien, are known for teaching an up-tempo offense and a tenacious helping man-to-man defense. Our program takes pride in recruiting from within Iowa and surrounding states, and find this region supplies an amazingly strong talent pool of girls who love to play the intense competitive Triton style.

Coach Carlson is a Heron Lake, Minnesota native, who played at Worthington Community College, and then finished his collegiate career as a University of Minnesota Golden Gopher. Carlson is going into his tenth season at Iowa Central.

Coach O'Brien is from Altamont, Kansas and played at Western Illinois University from 2006-2010. She finished her career with the most games played in Leatherneck history. She is going into her third year as an assistant coach at Iowa Central. Coach O'Brien's previous stints include Graduate Assistant at Western Illinois and Assistant Coach at Independence Community College in Independence, Kansas.

The women's coaching staff at Iowa Central Community College would like to thank you for helping us raise funds for our programs. These funds will be used to purchase various products and supplies to be used by the team throughout the up coming year. (For example: shoes, practice gear, hotel stays, etc...) Please feel free to see us in action later on in the year. Our brand of women's basketball is exciting to watch. Thanks again.

Sincerely,
Coach Craig Carlson
