Equipment

3 or many more Tennis Balls,
It is best if there is one ball per person
Stop watch for timing Frenzies

Terminology

Rabid Nugget - a moving tennis ball
Hectic - a stationary tennis ball
Berserk - a referees scream indicating a penalty
Frenzy - the length of the period of play containing six Berserks,
Logic - a tennis ball that becomes unintentionally lodged in or behind something Illogic - a tennis ball that is craftily stuck on, in or behind something by a devious player

Set-up

There are three referees, one on each end and the last to one side of the playing area. One of the referees kicks, bounces or throws the tennis balls into the playing area and the Frenzy begins. Simultaneously, the side line referee starts the timing.

It is the duty of the two end field referees to try and spot Hectics, to immediately, vigorously and condemningly point at the Hectic while issuing a loud, hysterical Berserk so that all will receive the penalty. The players have 5 seconds to start the Hectic moving or another Berserk is issued. Every 15 seconds after the start of the Frenzy the side line referee should put another Rabid Nugget into play until the final Berserk has been recorded. The side line Referee then, stops the timer, jumps up and down yelling STOP - STOP - STOP to indicate the end of the Frenzy and shouts out the time recorded. At the end of a Frenzy, players can sit down and have a reflection on how to better keep all the balls moving and thus extend the Frenzy the next time.

On top of spaghetti
All covered with cheese,
I lost my poor meatball
When somebody sneezed.

It rolled off the table
And onto the floor
And then my poor meatball
Rolled out thru the door.

It rolled to the garden
And under a bush
And then my poor meatball
Was nothing but mush.

Oh, the mush was as tasty
As tasty could be
And early next summer
It grew into a tree.

Oh the tree was all covered
With beautiful moss
And grew lovely meatballs
And to-ma-to sauce.

So if you eat spaghetti
All covered with cheese,
Hold on to your meatball,
Lest somebody sneeze.
