Panel Discussion, Keynote Speaker and Mixer!

October 17, 2013 • 3:30 – 7 p.m.

Location: U.S. Army Heritage & Education Center, 950 Soldiers Dr., Carlisle PA

Global logistics connects widely dispersed producers and consumers through gateways and corridors in regions throughout the United States. Simultaneously, there is an increasing economical and infrastructural disconnect between the industry and the regions that host them. Our distinguished panel will address and explain what distribution centers are and what services they require. Also, they will answer in detail why Central PA locations are in high demand, and how we develop responsible projects. Our keynote speaker, Andy Mace, will discuss trends in distribution-global networks, United States networks, distribution networks and specifications.

ULI Philadelphia and the Cumberland Area Economic Development Corporation join together to present a distinguished panel of experts: P.J. Charlton, Senior Vice President, KTR Capital Partners; Eric Clancy, Executive Vice President, Delta Development Group; Bryan Salzmann, Esq., President, Salzmann Hughes, P.C.; and Reid Townsend, Partner, Panattoni Development Company. Moderator: James J. Clymer, LEED AP, Key Development Group. After the program, enjoy a networking Happy Hour with your colleagues.
