Merchandise Consignment Agreement

🔊 This is a standard introductory paragraph that lists the date and the parties to the Agreement.

Effective Date: [Date]

by and between [Company Legal Name], (“[Company]”) a [State], [Corporation / Partnership / Sole Proprietorship] located at [Address]

[City], [State] [Zip Code]

and [Name of person giving the merchandise to sell], (“Consignor”) residing at [Consignor’s Address]

[City], [State] [Zip Code]

1. Summary

🔊 Section 1 contains a description of the product to be consigned. If there is more than one item, you may wish to use an addendum that would itemize all of the products and provide a description of each.

🔊 Either identify the merchandise in the section below or use an exhibit (and attach to the end of this Agreement) to list the items being consigned.

The Consignor wishes to sell [Describe the product(s) or the merchandise more fully described in Exhibit A, attached to this Agreement and incorporated by reference] by consigning said item(s) to [Company] for sale, it is understood:

2. Promotion

🔊 Section 2 states that [Company] agrees to display the merchandise. While this may seem obvious, the Consignor does not want his or her merchandise in a back room hidden from view.

🔊 The Consignor would want to ask for the item(s) to be displayed in a prominent place while [Company] may not want to agree to this as it would require him to not just display the item, but to do so in a "prominent" place.

[Company] agrees to display item(s) in [Describe a prominent place] in his or her establishment.

3. Best Efforts

🔊 Section 3 requires [Company] to agree to use his or her best efforts to sell the item(s) at a price no lower than the amount agreed to below.

[Company] will make every attempt to obtain the best possible price for the consigned merchandise and will accept no less than $[x] as purchase price.

4. Commission

🔊 Section 4 states that in the event that the item(s) is (are) sold, then [Company] gets a fee. This section is where that fee is established.

🔊 You may either establish a set dollar amount or a percentage of the purchase price.

For his or her efforts, [Company] is entitled to retain [x]% of the purchase price.

5. Payment

- Section 5 states that [Company] agrees to send the Consignor moneys due to him within the prescribed period of time.
- [Company] would want this to be as long as possible, while the Consignor would want the period to be as brief as possible.

Upon completion of a sale, [Company] shall forward a check for the amount of the full purchase price less the aforementioned fee to the Consignor within [xx] days of the receipt of same.

6. Insurance

- Section 6 states that [Company] has insurance; although he is responsible for the Consignor's merchandise, this provides additional protection in the event of fire, theft, or other damages.

[Company] represents he maintains insurance for theft and damage, and that the consigned merchandise will be covered by said insurance while it is in his or her possession.

7. Term

- In Section 7, the Consignor and [Company] must agree to a minimum period of time to leave the merchandise; however, by mutual Agreement the parties can shorten or lengthen this period at any time.

The Consignor agrees to leave the merchandise with [Company] for a minimum of [xx] days.

8. Unsold Merchandise

- Section 8 states that if the item(s) remains unsold at the end of the period set in Section 7, and [Company] tells the Consignor to remove the merchandise or the Consignor wants his or her merchandise back (one of these will apply depending on how you draft this section), then the Consignor will either come and get the item(s) or [Company] will send them to him at the Consignor's expense.
- Generally, both the Consignor and [Company] would want to be able to make the election as to when the merchandise is removed. You can choose one, the other, or both.

Should the merchandise remain unsold at the end of the consignment period and an election be made by [the Consignor / [Company] / either the Consignor or [Company]] to remove said merchandise, any costs incurred by the delivery of same to the Consignor shall be borne by the Consignor.

9. General Provisions

- The General Provisions that follow are fairly standard. These provisions enhance the balance of the Agreement by defining certain common issues such as notice, assignment, legal remedies, waiver, and attorney fees, etc..

9.1 Independent Contractors. The relationship between both parties established by this Agreement is that of independent contractors, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to give either party the power to direct and control the day-to-day activities of the other. Neither party is an agent, representative or partner of the other party. Neither party shall have any right, power or authority to enter into any agreement for, or on behalf of, or incur any obligation or liability of, or to otherwise bind, the other party. This Agreement shall not be interpreted or construed to create an association, agency, joint venture or partnership between the parties or to impose any liability attributable to such relationship upon either party.

☞ You may or may not want to make this deal public – at least limit that event by this agreement and work out if/how/when you want to do that later.

9.2 Publicity. Neither party will make any public announcement or issue any press release concerning the terms of this Agreement without the prior approval of both parties.

☞ Make it clear that you will not try to hire away each others employees. If you do or it happens then there is compensation built-in and you can avoid further legal proceedings.

9.3 Non-Solicitation. Neither party shall solicit for employment or hire the other's current or future employees, either directly or indirectly, during the Term of this Agreement, without obtaining the other's prior written approval. Should an employee change employment from one party to the other, the new employer shall pay the old employer a fee equivalent to Twenty Percent (20%) of the employee's new compensation, annualized for the first year.

☞ You must decide which state governs this Agreement and where any legal action would be taken. Generally, it is your (company's) state of residence.

9.4 Governing Law & Jurisdiction. This agreement and the parties' actions under this Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the state of [State], without reference to conflict of law principles. The parties hereby expressly consent to the jurisdiction and venue of the federal and state courts within the state of [State]. Each party hereby irrevocably consents to the service of process in any such action or proceeding by the mailing of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to such party at its address set forth in the preamble of this Agreement, such service to become effective thirty (30) days after such mailing.

☞ This Agreement is intended to be the only Agreement, and that no other documents or communications are binding. Therefore, it is very important to make sure that everything [Company] and [Client] have agreed to is included in this Agreement. Otherwise, it is as if it was not agreed to.

9.5 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the attached exhibits, constitutes the entire Agreement between both parties concerning this transaction, and replaces all previous communications, representations, understandings, and Agreements, whether verbal or written between the parties to this Agreement or their representatives. No representations or statements of any kind made by either party, that are not expressly stated in this Agreement, shall be binding on such parties.

☞ Any changes to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by the party against whom that writing is to be used.

9.6 All Amendments in Writing. No waiver, amendment or modification of any provisions of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of the party against whom such waiver, amendment or modification is sought to be enforced. Furthermore, no provisions in either party's purchase orders, or in any other business forms employed by either party will supersede the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

☞ All notices between the parties must be in writing and either delivered in person or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

9.7 Notices. Any notice required or permitted by this Agreement shall be deemed given if sent by registered mail, postage prepaid with return receipt requested, addressed to the other party at the address set forth in the preamble of this Agreement or at such other address for which such party gives notice hereunder. Delivery shall be deemed effective three (3) days after deposit with postal authorities.

☞ In the event of a lawsuit or any legal proceeding involving this Agreement, the losing party will have to pay the winning party his or her costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees.

9.8 Costs of Legal Action. In the event any action is brought to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its costs of enforcement including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and court costs.

- ☞ Legal remedies, i.e., money damages, may not be sufficient; therefore, both parties agree to equitable remedies such as an injunction where the breaching party would be required to do or not to do something.

9.9 Inadequate Legal Remedy. Both parties understand and acknowledge that violation of their respective covenants and Agreements may cause the other irreparable harm and damage, that may not be recovered at law, and each agrees that the other's remedies for breach may be in equity by way of injunctive relief, as well as for damages and any other relief available to the non-breaching party, whether in law or in equity.

- ☞ Assuming the parties wish to use Arbitration in the event of a dispute, the following section should be included. You take your chances with an arbitrator, but it keeps legal costs down and keeps you out of a drawn out legal process.

9.10 Arbitration. Any dispute relating to the interpretation or performance of this Agreement shall be resolved at the request of either party through binding arbitration. Arbitration shall be conducted in [County], [State] in accordance with the then-existing rules of the American Arbitration Association. Judgment upon any award by the arbitrators may be entered by any state or federal court having jurisdiction. Both parties intend that this Agreement to arbitrate be irrevocable.

- ☞ Merely delaying to bring an action that one party has a right to bring does not cause that party to lose or waive his right to pursue that action.

9.11 Delay is Not a Waiver. No failure or delay by either party in exercising any right, power or remedy under this Agreement, except as specifically provided in this Agreement, shall operate as a waiver of any such right, power or remedy.

- ☞ Neither party will be blamed if there is a problem resulting from something beyond its control, such as an earthquake, flood, war.

9.12 Force Majeure. In the event that either party is unable to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement or to enjoy any of its benefits because of any Act of God, strike, fire, flood, governmental acts, orders or restrictions, Internet system unavailability, system malfunctions or any other reason where failure to perform is beyond the reasonable control and not caused by the negligence of the non-performing party (a "Force Majeure Event"), the party who has been so affected shall give notice immediately to the other party. ☞ shall use its reasonable best efforts to resume performance. Failure to meet due dates resulting from a Force Majeure Event shall extend such due dates for a reasonable period. However, if the period of nonperformance exceeds sixty (60) days from the receipt of notice of the Force Majeure Event, the party whose ability to perform has not been affected may, by giving written notice, terminate this Agreement effective immediately upon such notice or at such later date as is therein specified.

- ☞ This section limits the ability of either party to transfer any of its rights or delegate any of its duties to third parties.

- ☞ You want to make sure that you can sell your business along with all of the relationships you have developed along the way. (Often these relationships can add tremendous value to your business and you want to make sure that all of your agreements can be transferred to the new owners.) I wouldn't want to seek (let alone pay for) permission to sell my company.

- ☞ Generally, neither party may assign their respective rights to a third party; however, with the possible exception of assignment to a successor corporation or partnership, either party may transfer its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the approval of the other party. This Agreement would be binding on the 3rd party.

☞ However, you may want to limit each other's ability to pass along this deal to another possibly unknown and possibly unfriendly entity. The second paragraph prevents unauthorized transfer of responsibilities...

☞ CHOOSE one or the other of these two following paragraphs.

9.13 Assignability & Binding Effect. Except as expressly set forth within this Agreement, neither party may transfer or assign, directly or indirectly, this Agreement or its rights and obligations hereunder without the express written permission of the other party, not to be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that both parties shall have the right to assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement to any parent, subsidiary, affiliated entity or pursuant to any merger, consolidation or reorganization, provided that all such assignees and transferees agree in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement prior to such assignment or transfer. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their successors and assigns.

☞ ~ Or ~

☞ This paragraph DOES NOT ALLOW either party to transfer its rights to a successor company without prior approval.

9.13 Non-Assignability & Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided for within this Agreement, neither party may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement to any third party without the express written permission of the other. Any such assignment is deemed null and void.

☞ If any part of this Agreement is unenforceable or invalid, the balance of the Agreement should still be enforced. Basically, ignore any sections that are invalid.

9.14 Severability. If any provisions of this Agreement are held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid under any applicable statute or rule of law, they are to that extent to be deemed omitted and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

☞ The headings of the various sections are meant to explain or otherwise give meaning to those sections; they are for convenience only.

9.15 Cumulative Rights. Any specific right or remedy provided in this Agreement will not be exclusive but will be cumulative upon all other rights and remedies described in this section and allowed under applicable law.

9.16 Headings. The titles and headings of the various sections and sections in this Agreement are intended solely for convenience of reference and are not intended for any other purpose whatsoever, or to explain, modify or place any construction upon or on any of the provisions of this Agreement.

☞ Every copy shall be just as valid as the original.

9.17 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, any one of which will be considered an original, but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.

☞ Even after the termination of the Agreement, the parties may still have certain responsibilities such as keeping information confidential.

9.18 Survival of Certain Provisions. The warranties and the indemnification and confidentiality obligations set forth in the Agreement shall survive the termination of the Agreement by either party for any reason.
