

Certificate of Membership Units

- 🔊 This is like a receipt for a specific number of units (or shares) of ownership of an LLC in exchange for a capital contribution of a member or business entity.
- 🔊 It is important to maintain an internal document with the business records of the LLC entitled Certificate Register that lists the capital contribution of each member and the date, amount of contribution and number of units (or shares) of ownership interest given.
- 🔊 These certificates should be numbered consecutively and each certificate issued is given the next higher number. The total number of units issued by the LLC should be kept to a low number – some states impose a tax on high numbers of units issued by a limited liability company.
- 🔊 See also “LLC Consent to Appointment as Registered Agent” for a listing of all state’s LLC offices and websites.
