Dear Rotary Member:

As Rotarians, we have to be flexible. Brianna McDonald had a great program scheduled for this week with the Rochester Airport Director, but I am sure you all know by now that he has moved on to a new position in Iowa. Oh well, not to fear, Chris Berg has now scheduled John Huntzinger, who most of us know from his past work on the City Council and at the Historical Society. He is now with the Rochester Public Library and it should be a great program!

I have been promoting our Christmas Party which is coming up on December 17 at 5:30 and will serve as our program, so I hope you have this in your calendar. We really want to promote Rotary so feel free to bring family members and friends. Chris will have a sign up sheet out soon.

Finally, we have our Fruit pick up this Friday at Channel One. It will start at 7:00 am and extend to later in the morning.

I look forward to seeing you Wednesday, December 10.

"A Rotary club is autonomous, free to seek its own outlets for service. This is a source of strength. Springing from it is the ability of a club to adapt itself to the local community." - Address to the 1974 Rotary Convention, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, USA

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tekeshi and Mathu, our foreign exchange students, are looking for opportunities to experience our cultures. It would be great if our members could take them on any excursion, special event, or anything else that you might think would be of interest to them, or just schedule a time to get to know them and they you. Please contact Chad Anderson or Alan Hansen for arrangements.

Fruit pick up this Friday starting at 7:00 am at Channel One.

2014 Christmas Party: The Program Committee has booked the Bowlocity private eight lane area for 5:30 to 7:30 pm on Wednesday, December 17,

2014. This area includes unlimited bowling for those who are interested. The area includes couches and plenty of area for people to relax and chat. Please put this in your calendar and know that more detailed information will be forthcoming.

Our regular Rotary Meeting for Wednesday, January 14, 2015 will be at the Hilton Garden Inn.
