Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven,

exult, let Angel ministers of God exult, let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King's triumph!

(Exultet – Easter Proclamation)

With these words, we begin our Easter Vigil. The Easter Vigil in the Holy Night is “the greatest and most noble of all solemnities” (Roman Missal, p. 197, #2) in the Church. It is the night in which, with glad exuberance, we bask in the benevolent light of our eternal King, Jesus Christ, our Lord and the Only Begotten Son of the eternal Father.

Through the radiance of the glory of his cross, Christ “constantly invites us to rejoice” (Evangelii Gaudium 5), to exult in his Gospel – the Gospel of life and of love.

Let us all rejoice and share this uncontainable grace, joy and love with one another. Let us not lose sight of this reality of the tangible and touchable closeness of salvation. Let us always rejoice in the fact of God's love for us which is manifested in the Paschal Mystery.

May the Risen Lord fill you and your loved ones with his blessings and joy this Easter and always. May this love and charity beyond all telling over shadow and fill you and your family.

On behalf of the Priests, Deacons and Parish & School Staff
I wish you all a Blessed, Holy and Happy Easter!

Fr. Anh-Tuan D. Nguyen.

Administrator.

NEW EVANGELIZATION

We are called to radiate the love of Jesus Christ to all the world! However, this divine love only comes through a personal relationship with our Lord and Savior. In this website we will learn how to love God with our head through spiritual reading, with our heart through deep prayer, and with our hands through humble service. Here's the website:

May God Bless us one and all.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/FORMATION

Congratulations to our newly initiated Catholics! Great Work!

The Religious Education/Formation students are taught certain prayers which are part of the rich history and tradition of the Church. The Angelus is one of those famous prayers taught through the centuries to honor the Blessed Mother. We are reminded with this prayer to turn to our Lady three times a day, or at least once a day, usually at 12:00 Noon. It remembers both the Annunciation of Our Lady and the Incarnation of Our Lord. During the time of Easter another prayer is said. From Easter Sunday through Pentecost Sunday, the Regina Coeli is to be said in place of the Angelus. The following is the prayer.

REGINA COELI

Queen of heaven, rejoice! Alleluia.

The Son whom it was your privilege to bear, Alleluia, has risen as He said, Alleluia.

Pray to God for us, Alleluia.

Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia!

For the Lord has truly risen. Alleluia.

Let Us Pray O God, You gave joy to the world through the Resurrection of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. We ask

You through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother to bring us to the happiness of eternal life. Through the same Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Please share this prayer with your children. This is how dynamic Catholic leaders are formed. Happy Easter!

2015 OAK TREE FESTIVAL

...Paving Our Future

The countdown is on for our 36th Annual Oak Tree Festival! But there's still a lot of work that needs to be done, and we would love your help. Our Oak Tree Festival is a highly anticipated event which unites parishioners, staff, faculty, students, neighbors and a multitude of volunteers. The dates for the festival are May 15, 16 & 17, 2015. Joe Gaffney is to be highly commended for stepping in and taking on the responsibility as Chair. Our Festival committee has assembled a marvelous corps of workers; most of them long time festival volunteers. Many volunteers will be needed, however, so please be available for this great united effort. Your commitment plays a vital role in the success of our weekend. We can't do it without you!

Here are some ways to be a part of this success and support the festival:

Raffle Tickets - all parishioners will receive a packet of raffle tickets in the mail. Please remember that raffle ticket sales are a large part of the festival's revenue, making it an essential part of our parish's fundraising efforts. Thank you to those who buy or sell them every year. For those who never have, please consider buying or selling this year, even if just a few of them. You may turn in your tickets to the Parish Office. Full payment for the 50 tickets is $100.00. If you find this amount to be beyond your means, whatever you are able to donate will be appreciated. Your chance of winning $8000, $2500 or $1000 is better than the Lottery. Additional raffle tickets are available in the Parish Office for those individuals that are great and persuasive at selling extra tickets.

Volunteers - we have started to make volunteer assignments for the weekend of the festival. If you would like to be a part of the fun that weekend, please call or e-mail and we'll schedule you in. School families check with your Room Moms for information.

"FR. DAN'S COUNTRY STORE" DONATIONS

Festival is just around the corner. Please save your good "stuff" for the Country Store. We will be accepting your "gently used" treasures to help make this Oaktree another wonderful success. Items can be brought to the Parish Hall labeled COUNTRY STORE! Thank You.

Please contact Festival Chair Joe Gaffney at 951-314-7912 or oaktree@stdorothy.org for more information. Thank you!
