

While VPK services are free of charge, all participating children's parents/guardians must bring a copy of proof of their child's birth date and proof of Florida residency to be left with the application at the time of registration:

Age Eligibility

Child must be 4 years of age, but not 5 years of age or older, on September 1 of the program year.

The Coalition shall keep a record of at least one of the supporting documents that shows the child's name and date of birth:

- Original or certified copy of child's birth record filed according to law with the appropriate public officer;
- Original or certified copy of child's certificate of baptism or other religious record of the child's birth, accompanied by an affidavit stating that the certificate is true and correct, sworn to or affirmed by the child's parent;
- An insurance policy on the child's life that has been in force for at least 2 (two) years;
- A passport or certificate of the child's arrival in the United States;
- A Valid Florida Department of Health Form 680 Certification of Immunization signed by a public health officer or by a licensed practicing physician;
- A valid military dependent identification card;
- If no supporting documents listed above are available, a coalition may accept a parent's sworn affidavit of age accompanied by a certificate of age signed by a public health officer or by a physician stating that the child's age in the affidavit is true and correct.

If a child's parent is unable to submit any supporting documentation listed above, the coalition shall document the child's age based on an affidavit sworn to or affirmed by the child's parent. The affidavit must be accompanied by a certificate of age, signed by a public health officer or by a licensed practicing physician which states that the physician has examined the child and believes that the age as stated in the affidavit is true and correct.

Residential Eligibility

To be eligible for VPK, a child must reside in Florida while attending the VPK program. The Coalition shall keep a record of at least one of the supporting documents that show the name and address of a parent with whom the child resides:

- Utility bill (must have full name, full street address, city and zip code);
- Pay stub;
- Residential rental agreement or receipt from rental payment
- Government issued document, e.g. Florida driver's license, Florida Identification Card, property tax assessment showing a homestead exemption;
- Military order showing that the child's parent is a service member in the United States Armed Forces and is assigned to duty in Florida when the child attends the VPK program, e.g. permanent change of station
- If no supporting documents listed above are available, a coalition may accept an affidavit sworn to or affirmed by the child's parent accompanied by a letter from a landlord or property owner which confirms that the child resides at the address shown in the affidavit
- If no supporting documents listed above are available for a homeless child as defined in Section 1003.01, F.S., a coalition shall document residency based on other supporting documents showing that the child is homeless and resides in Florida (e.g. letter from a homeless shelter or affidavit sworn to or affirmed by the child's parent).
