

ECONOMICS

STUDENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Being a member of SAC is a great way to do all of the following:

- Be involved in the campus community
- Meet new people and build career networks
- Build your résumé and gain career experience and skills
 - Diverse experiences: leadership, collaboration, event planning, social media savvy, and many others!
 - Earn a titled position
- Discover your strengths and interests
- Strengthen connections with professors

JOIN ECONOMICS SAC!

WHAT IS SAC?

Student Advisory Committees exist for every department to act on behalf of students in dealings with department faculty, ASUU, and university administration. The Economics SAC works to:

- Promote academic and social activities
 - Encourage collaboration with other student organizations
 - Facilitate faculty retention, promotion, and tenure responsibilities
 - Participate in the course evaluation process
 - Recommend improvements to university and departmental policies and procedures
 - Build campus community at the U
 - Participate in department committees
- Share educational resources with other economics students

Questions?

Ask the SAC Chair: Jess Esplin
jess.esplin@gmail.com

SAC Website:

ECONOMICS STUDENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

To apply for the 2015-2016 academic year, please submit this application and a résumé to jess.esplin@gmail.com.

Name: _____ Phone #: _____

Expected Graduation Date: _____ Email: _____

Address: _____

How much time per week would you be willing to commit? _____

Which sub-committee most interests you? Circle one:

Publicity

Event Planning

Student/Alumni Engagement

1. What can you contribute as a member of SAC? (i.e.: experience, skills, etc.)

2. What do you seek to gain by participating in SAC?

3. Will you commit to being an active participant in the committee?

SAC Chair
Jess Esplin
jess.esplin@gmail.com

SAC Website:

