The Villages is a private, non-profit, child and family services agency with a 32-year history of working throughout Indiana to ensure that children who are abused or neglected can be raised in a loving family setting. In addition to therapeutic foster care and adoption, current services include: Healthy Families; individual and group counseling; child care and early childhood development services; family preservation and reunification services; independent and transitional living services; and kinship care services.

The Villages champions every child's right to a safe, permanent and nurturing home. We are committed to strengthening all families and to embracing the dignity and diversity of EVERY child, youth and family served.
