INSTRUCTIONS

Child's Personal Information

NAME TO APPEAR IN TRAVEL DOCUMENT

Write the child's name to appear in the travel document. This name will normally be the same as the surname and given name(s) shown on the child's proof of immigration status. If this name is different from the name on the child's proof of immigration status, the original of the documentation listed below may be required:

- child's legal change of name document (original document from issuing authority); or
- proof that the records of entry at Citizenship and Immigration Canada have been amended (i.e. approved "Request to Amend Immigration Record of Landing" form IMM 1436).

Additional documents may be requested to verify the child's identity.

SURNAME AT BIRTH/FORMER SURNAME

Complete only if different from the surname to appear in the travel document (for Passport Canada information only; will not appear in the travel document).

DATE OF BIRTH

The date of birth will be inscribed in the travel document exactly as it appears on the proof of immigration status unless Citizenship and Immigration Canada records have been amended subsequent to the child's admission to Canada. In this case, the original approved "Request to Amend Immigration Record of Landing" form IMM 1436 is required. If the child's proof of immigration status does not show a complete date of birth, indicate a specific day, month and year of the birth. Provide copies of any documents you may have showing this date of birth (i.e. provincial health care card).

SIGNATURE

Children 11 years of age or over MUST sign their usual signature. The signature MUST NOT exceed the inner limits of the signature box.

2

Information on Applicant

Both parents are requested to participate in obtaining travel document services for their child and to sign the application form. The other parent may be contacted.

CUSTODY, SEPARATION AND DIVORCE

Where a court order or agreement exists referring to custody of the child, only the person with custodial rights may apply. All legal documents that refer to custody or mobility of, or access to, the child must be provided. If a divorce has been granted, a copy of the divorce judgement or order must also be provided. Where joint custody provisions exist, either parent may apply.

RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER PARENT

Indicate your current relationship with the other parent: single, common law, married, separated, divorced, widowed. Indicate date of marriage to the other parent, if applicable. Additional information or documentation may be requested. For further information, contact Passport Canada.

3

Proof of Immigration Status in Canada

Provide ONE of the immigration status documents listed in section 3 of the application form (copies or notarized copies are not accepted). Additional information may be requested to confirm the child's immigration status in Canada. If you require an immigration status document for the child, contact Citizenship and Immigration Canada (see page 2 - Additional Information).

Note: If the child has protected person status and his/her refugee claim was filed in and processed within Canada, you should include a copy of the certificate issued by the Immigration and Refugee Board that certifies the recognition of the child's claim to refugee protection.

4

Declaration of Guarantor

A guarantor is a person who confirms the child's identity and has knowledge of the child. The guarantor must perform free of charge the following TWO tasks:

1. Certify the information on the application form by completing and signing the "Declaration of Guarantor" section;
2. Write on the back of ONE of the child's photos, "I certify this to be a true likeness of (child's name)" and sign.

Your guarantor must:

The list above is not a recognition or endorsement by Passport Canada of professional status or superior qualifications.

If you have not known an eligible guarantor for at least SIX months, complete a "Statutory Declaration in Lieu of Guarantor for a Travel Document" form PPTC 326, available from any office of Passport Canada. This form must be completed at your expense before a person authorized by law to administer an oath or solemn affirmation. This may delay the processing time of the travel document.

- A person's name may appear in only ONE valid Canadian travel document.
- If the valid travel document has been lost, stolen, damaged, destroyed or is inaccessible, complete a "Statutory Declaration" form PPTC 203, available from any office of Passport Canada. 6

Citizenship and Travel Documentation

- Enclose any travel document or national passport issued to the child or in which the child's name appears. If you are no longer in possession of this travel document or passport, write on the application form a description of the document, date and place of issue and explain its present whereabouts.

If this letter is not in either English or French, we require a translation of the letter signed before a notary public or other official authorized by law to administer an oath or solemn affirmation as being a true translation.
- If the child has been refused a national passport and you have not received a letter of refusal from the authorities to whom the application was made, enclose copies of any relevant letters you may have retained regarding the request for a passport or renewal of such a document for the child. Write on the application form the results of the application including the date you were refused. (If insufficient space, use page 4 of the application form.)
- If you have applied for a national passport for the child and have not received a written response, write in detail on the application form all the steps you have taken (in order of their dates) to obtain the passport and the results achieved. Enclose copies of any relevant letters you may have retained. (If insufficient space, use page 4 of the application form.)

- If you have lost your Canadian citizenship receipt, write the date the application was made.
- If you were unsuccessful in your application for Canadian citizenship, enclose the letter of refusal. If you have lost the letter of refusal, write the date you applied and the reason for the refusal.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING CHILDREN TRAVELLING ABROAD

Travelling with Children or Children Travelling Alone

Immigration authorities in most countries are becoming increasingly vigilant when children are crossing international borders. Whether travelling alone or accompanied by an adult, each child travelling abroad must have a valid travel document and may also require supporting documentation. Prior to any travel that includes a child, you should contact the embassy or consulate of all countries the child will be visiting to inquire about entry requirements.

Documentation to Facilitate Travel Abroad

The following documents may be required to support the entry of a child to another country:

- Birth certificate showing the names of both parents
- Legal documents pertaining to custody
- If the child is travelling with one parent, a letter signed and dated from the other parent authorizing travel (letter may have to be notarized)
- If the child is travelling with someone other than the parent, a letter signed and dated from both parents authorizing travel with that person (letter may have to be notarized)
- If the child is travelling alone, a letter signed and dated from both parents authorizing travel (letter may have to be notarized)
- If one of the parents is deceased, the death certificate.

Documentation and Tips to Facilitate the Return to Canada

The following tips may help to avoid delays when a child is returning to Canada:

- Always carry proper identification for yourself and the child - passport, travel document, birth certificate, citizenship card, proof of immigration status.
- If you have legal custody of the child, carry with you copies of documents specifying custody rights.
- If you are not the legal guardian of the child, carry a letter of permission or authorization for you to have custody when entering Canada. When a parent is travelling alone with a child, a letter from the other parent can also facilitate the return of both the parent and the child. The letter should also contain telephone numbers where the parent or legal guardian can be contacted.
- If you are travelling as part of a caravan, be sure you are in the same vehicle as the child you are accompanying when arriving at a border crossing.
- Have the child memorize your home and/or office telephone number and teach him or her to call you in an emergency.

Custody Information

1. Custody arrangements in Canada may not be recognized in another country. In extreme cases, the child may not be able to leave the country visited. It is recommended that, before leaving on a trip, you check with the embassy or consulate of the country or countries the child will be visiting to determine what documentation may be required relating to the custody of the child. For further information, contact:

Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada:

In Canada 1 800 387-3124
Outside Canada 613-943-1055

2. If a custody dispute could possibly arise while travelling with the child, you should talk to a Canadian lawyer prior to your departure. We suggest you also read the publication, International Child Abductions: A Manual for Parents. For a free copy call:
