

Strengthening Forensic Science in Texas: Moving Forward

A Roundtable Discussion Hosted By The Texas Forensic Science Commission
June 6, 2012 - 7:30 AM to 3:30 PM

Registration Form - Austin, TX

Name

Title

Agency Name

Agency Address

Telephone

Fax

Email

Participant type: Forensic scientist Attorney Law enforcement
Judiciary Other (Specify)

Each attendee may select a total of SIX roundtable discussions from the following. Please indicate your preferences below.

- Certification of examiners
- Independence of laboratories and cognitive bias
- Research and reliability of methods
- Junk science and unaccredited disciplines
- Ethical dilemmas in forensic science
- Education and training
- Strategies for quality reporting and testimony
- Quality and timeliness of services

Location:
Texas State Capitol
1100 Congress
Austin, Texas 78701

Please submit registration forms via email to Leigh Tomlin at info@fsc.state.tx.us no later than May 11, 2012.

Space is limited. Registration confirmations will be sent via email no later than Friday May 11, 2012. A registration confirmation must be presented in order to participate in the forum. Limited space is available to observers. Contact Leigh Tomlin, Commission Coordinator, at (512) 936-0661 for additional information.