

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Englishman, Damian Aspinall, heads a foundation that works to preserve endangered species of wild animals in the jungles of Africa. Five years ago, Aspinall raised a gorilla named Kwibi and returned him to the wild. Later, Aspinall returned to Gabon and traveling up river by boat miraculously relocated his old friend, all 500 pounds of him. Aspinall and the gorilla sat together, sharing a leaf, making gurgling sounds and embracing each other.

This Sunday's gospel reflects on the joy of reunion as the Prodigal Son comes home to the father, the lost sheep is found and the lost coin is recovered.

Yours in Christ,
Father Dave

THIS WEEK'S READINGS

This Week's Readings

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Sept. 11/12)

Reading I: Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14

Reading II: 1 Timothy 1:12-17

Gospel: Luke 15:1-32

READING REFLECTION

Stepping Into Grace: A Student Reflection by Jimmy Starke, Senior

I find that passages such as these are often difficult to understand because I am so easily distracted from the true message of the scripture. Sin seems to be such an obvious reflection point for these passages, and until recently, I would have picked out the images of a punitive God from Exodus, related to the struggles of Paul in 1 Timothy, and felt lost with the Prodigal Son.

But, this summer, I found a new way to look at sin: one full of hope and compassion and inspiration. It is better, I think, to see the transforming grace, like that grace Paul tells of in 1 Timothy. In my own life over the past few weeks, I have been fortunate to experience that grace in a unique way.

As the new semester starts, I notice that something close to pride has been surfacing in my friends and me. We try to impress each other with the accomplishments of the summer, we compare the difficulty of our schedules, and we talk excitedly about our new jobs or responsibilities.

This is all fine, except for those of us who can only share senior-year-schedules, and the lack of new and impressive job titles.

As for me, I felt as though I was standing still or even moving backward. Does it hurt my pride that I can't compare to their accomplishments and success? Of course!

So I began to do what people have done since before Moses; I envied my friends success, made myself a golden calf to distract me from my own issues, found false ways to make myself feel important, and complained about my time in this apparent desert!

When I really started to feel unimportant in comparison to my friends and classmates, God began to help me realize what these Scripture passages were really saying about incompleteness and gave me perspective on what was truly important. The importance that I found didn't come through a job title or academic supremacy or anything similar.

My importance, my self-worth, was made known to me by an old friend, in casual conversation, who reminded me that she was praying for me. It was made known to me by a new friend who thanked me for helping him in a way that I didn't know I had helped. These two moments made me realize the real message of these Scripture passages: my worth is based on how my relationships and actions move me to improve my incompleteness by means of God's grace.

Viewing sin and human incompleteness through the lens of grace (instead of guilt and worthlessness) is something I have been taught for many years but never really understood. But with this perspective, the scripture passages come into new light.

The Responsorial Psalm becomes less of a pleading to a great Judge and more of a yearning for the gentleness of God. The focus of 1 Timothy (Second Reading) moves Paul from a blasphemer and persecutor to one who gives testimony of how God trusts us, is patient with us, and fills us with grace through Christ. And, Luke's Gospel shows us all of these in the simple moment of the father's embrace of his son.

Next Week's Readings

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Sept. 18/19)

Reading I: Am 8:4-7/1

Reading II: Tm 2:1-8

Gospel: Luke 16:1-13 or 16:10-13

WORD OF LIFE

Euthanasia or deliberately taking of the life of someone who is sick, dying, disabled or mentally ill is morally unacceptable. The Church calls for the ordinary care owed to a sick person, but medical procedures that are burdensome, dangerous or extraordinary are not necessary. If you are unsure about the moral implications of health care procedures that are being proposed for someone you love, contact your pastor of the diocese's Respect Life Apostolate. They will be happy to help you consider approaches that are in accordance with our Church's teaching about care for those who are sick or dying.
~ Most Rev. Robert J. Carlson, Archbishop of St. Louis, July 6, 2010 column in St. Louis Review

ADULT EDUCATION

'Sundays at the Well' – Fall 2010
"A Good Man Asks WHY?"

(The Book of Job and the Meaning of Suffering)

Ever wondered how a long God could allow there to be so much suffering in the world? Ever questioned how God could allow so much pain and suffering to affect the innocent, children or an entire nation? Do these thoughts ever make you think that there might not even be a God? Well, you are not alone. Job, in the Old Testament asked the very same questions. Join us as we explore the question of the meaning of suffering with other parishioners beginning Sunday, September 12th in Longinus Hall from 9:15 to 10:20 a.m. Please call the Rectory at 622-5470 to sign up, or put your name on the sign-up sheets at the side exits of the church.

R. C. I. A.

RCIA is for anyone who is interested in becoming Catholic or in updating and deepening their Catholic Faith. If anyone has been away from the Church for awhile, this is a great way to re-energize one's understanding and prayer life.

If you or anyone you know fit these above qualifications, please give the rectory a call! More information will follow!

FAMILY MATTERS

Athletes and Sports. Lord, we ask you to bless all our children who are involved in sports and athletic competition. Give them (and us) a right attitude about competition on and off the playing field. We ask that all be healthy and safe in their activities. We pray this week that all of our parish students and families give witness to the true values of sportsmanship through these activities.

You pray for my family and I'll pray for yours.

FAMILY GUILD

The Family Guild is a small organization which sponsors activities for the elementary school students of the parish.

Through our fundraising efforts we sponsor two spiritual based programs throughout the year. The programs are the Lent Event and the Advent-ure.

The Family Guild also strives to make the Sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation a little more special for our children by purchasing gifts and providing flowers for these joyous occasions.

If you would like to become more involved within the parish and be a positive influence in the spiritual lives of our parish youth, consider joining the Family Guild. We always welcome a new face among us.

If interested please call the Rectory 622-5470.

Our next meeting ..Tuesday, September 14th – 7 p.m. in the Rectory Fellowship Room

MISSION APPEAL

The weekend of September 25/26, the Rev. Jeffrey Duaimi, C.S.Sp., will visit our parish to speak at the Masses about the missionary work of the Church and in particular that of the Fathers of the Holy Spirit ("the Spiritans"), earlier known as the Holy Ghost Fathers.

This visit is part of a national program whereby annually a representative of one of the missionary groups visits parishes of the Diocese to enlist support for the mission work of the Church. The Congregation of the Holy Spirit is an international community engaged in a wide range of missionary activity in many areas of the world. Father Duaimi, who has worked in the Spiritan missions in Haiti, presently serves as President of Holy Ghost Preparatory School in Bethlehem, Pa.

When Jesus said: "You shall witness to me in Jerusalem and in Samaria and to the ends of the earth" He made the spread of the Gospel an essential part of our Catholic life.

We urge you to respond generously to Father Duaimi's appeal.

FROM OUR PARISH NURSE

... Janet Daubert

Unless you're exercising strenuously for more than an hour, you don't need a sports drink. You certainly don't need the sodium. A 20-ounce bottle of Gatorade, for instance, has 275 milligrams of sodium, which makes a big dent in the 1,500 milligram daily limit for people over 40. Yet sports drinks are sold alongside bottled water and other beverages in markets, cafeterias, and convenience stores, where they're often bought simply as a refreshment.
