Disclaimer Form

By submitting this form I hereby declare, confirm and acknowledge that:

- I have read and understood the enclosed terms and my obligations, and agree to abide by the Islamic Online University policies.

- The decision of Islamic Online University to take about my application is made on the basis of the information that I have provided on the application form. If Islamic Online University shall find that I have made a false statement, or have left out significant information, Islamic Online University reserves the right either to disqualify my application or to suspend me from studies and reserve the right to take on further steps deemed appropriate.

- The Islamic Online University takes reasonable care to provide the courses and facilities described in the Web site. However, courses may be altered or withdrawn at any stage owing to circumstances beyond the Islamic Online University's control. The Islamic Online University will accept no liability obligations if the courses described in the prospectus are not provided.

  However, Islamic Online University will take such steps as are available to it to minimize the effect of any alteration or withdrawal of a course.

- The Islamic Online University is not required to retain records other than the transcripts of the students and credits obtained or return anything submitted for the application.

- Fees paid to Islamic Online University for the Semester Registration is not refundable or transferable under any circumstances. This is due to the modest fee charged

- It is the responsibility of the prospective student to look at your profile page for updates about your enrolment and acceptance into the Islamic Online University and to follow it up with the Registrar if needed.

- Your virtual signature will be via check box that reads "I have read and agree to the Disclaimer Form of the Islamic online University".
