Western North Carolina Quilters Guild

7 PM Thursday, February 21, 2013

at Grace Lutheran Church, Hendersonville, NC

Judy Weber Embellishments

Judy, born and raised in California, has always been crafting. She has made things from wood, stained glass, paint, textiles, fibers and just sewing.

After spending time in Texas and Georgia during her husband's military service they moved to North Carolina to be closer to their son.

She wanted to open a shop but she had to determine what kind. About a year ago she opened a quilt store in Concord, NC.

She will bring and demonstrate the use of a variety of supplies, give a survey of embellishments and techniques, talk about removing any fear of what you are using, including dyes, inks, papers, etc.

Don't forget to begin your own quilt for the National Quilt Day Challenge, March will be here before you realize it. and...the color orange should get you going better than any other color out there.

WNCQG QUILT DISPLAY at the NORTH CAROLINA ARBORETUM

The NC Arboretum will host a display of the work of our Guild next fall – September through January – in the upstairs gallery of the Education Building. Display pieces must be for sale with a 30% commission to the Arboretum. Items must be consistent with the Arboretum mission and theme – nature/Blue Ridge mountains. Traditional, modern, wicked, wonky and wonderfully precise are all appropriate.

Although the Guild will participate in hanging the display, final decisions of what will be shown rest with the Arboretum, based on space available and consistency with theme. All Guild members are strongly encouraged to consider displaying their work in this excellent venue. Please contact franciatartar@aol.com if you are interested in participating in this exciting venture.

In the event of bad weather...

All meetings for Western North Carolina Quilters Guild will be cancelled if the Henderson County Public School System dismisses early, delays opening or cancels classes for that same day.

Planning for the Future...

Bridget O'Malley and Charleen Bertolini are planning our 2014 Guild Programs. We want our programs to reflect the interests of our members. Would you please email Charleen at cm\_bertolini@hotmail.com and let her know if you prefer lectures/workshops which focus on Busting your Stash, Learning a new Technique, or Perfecting a Skill.

If you know of a teacher or a skill you would like to see included in our programs, please also email Charleen that information.

We're looking forward to excellent programs in 2013, and to building upon the Guild's foundation to make the 2014 programs just as rich and exciting.

WNCQG Board Meeting - January 11, 2013

2015 NCQ Symposium News Box

A CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

The N C Quilt Symposium will be hosted by WNCQG, May 28-31, 2015, at Bonclarken Conference Center in Flat Rock, NC. People from all around our state, as well as outside our state, look forward to this annual event.

Consider joining Jean Jones and Joanne Shafer in 2013 this coming spring as they begin to plan our 4th NCQSI Symposium.

The steering committee will begin its meetings in May 2013 and will need 25 enthusiastic volunteers "to organize and administer the functions that make a Symposium."

We are looking for chairs for Publicity, Registration, Raffle Quilt, Site Coordination, Nametags, Volunteer Coordination, Quilt Show, Merchant's Mall, Guild Booth, Hospitality, Artwork (design a new logo for the event), Printing, (class schedules, handbook, etc.), Secretary and more. Remember, many jobs will need your support if not your leadership.

This is a wonderful way to participate in YOUR Guild.

WNCQG Guild Meeting - January 17, 2013

The meeting was called to order by Jean Jones, President.

The minutes of the December 6, 2012, meeting were approved as published.

Announcements:

Area Reps take 2013 directories.

Carole Reimold & Trish Hendershot will prepare coffee for meetings. Remember to bring "goodies" when it is your birthday month.

The books for sale in the Library are from Sarah Wallace.

Audit Report: Kay Thomas - The audit has been completed and the records are in order. Quilt show profit = $569.94 / Raffle Quilt profit = $3,665.00

Upcoming Opportunities: Joanne Shafer - The Board has designated each January meeting as a Community Quilt Work Day. A planning committee will be composed of representatives from each area with Joanne Shafer as chair.

The Asheville Quilt Guild has invited us to attend their April 17th workshop. The instructor is Cindy William and it will be at the Folk Art Center. The registration and workshop description is in their newsletter.

A Symposium Planning Committee is being formed (Jean Jones & Joanne Shafer co-chairs). In addition to the committee there are unlimited volunteer opportunities. Let Jean or Joanne know which area interests you the most.

Membership: Francia Tartar - Membership is currently approximated 150.

Challenge Quilt/National Quilt Day: Kathleen Lambert - You may still purchase fat quarters for the Challenge Quilt - Theme: Do You See What I See? The show will be March 9th at Blue Ridge Mall. Sign-ups for volunteers to help at the show are available.

Programs: Patricia Votruba and Sarah Bookspan - The 1st workshop is April 19th. There will be 3 workshops in 2013. The 2013 programs are in the January Grainlines and posted on the website.

The meeting was adjourned by Jean Jones.

Respectfully submitted,

Jane Andersen
