A. INTENT

It is the intent of these regulations to set forth the process and procedure for creating, consolidating, and modifying Special Districts in Elbert County. This process allows adequate review time for analyzing the potential impacts upon the health, safety, and welfare of Elbert County citizens of submitted applications.

B. DEFINITION OF ELBERT COUNTY SPECIAL DISTRICTS

1. "Special District" (hereinafter "Special District") means any quasi-governmental entity organized under Colorado Law, no matter what sort of service or services is proposed, that seeks to provide those services within Elbert County, either in whole or in part, and where the statutory framework under which it is organized authorizes the proposed district to exercise:

- 1) taxing power, or
- 2) spending power (including issuing bonds and/or borrowing money) or
- 3) power of eminent domain

2. Regardless of the statutes under which it may be organized, if the proposed quasi-governmental entity is authorized to collect taxes from the public, or spend taxpayer money, or take private property for its own use, then it is considered to be a Special District, and is subject to these Special District regulations, and the public approval process set forth here.

3. Throughout this Part II, Section 26, the term “Special District” expressly encompasses more than the statutory definition at CRS §32-1-103(10), and also includes, but is not limited to, those districts organized under the following statutory provisions:

- Business Improvement Districts CRS §§ 31-25-1201 - 1228
- Cemetery Districts CRS §§ 30-20-801 - 808
- Conservation Districts CRS §§ 35-70-101 - 122

And also includes all Special Districts organized under the Colorado Special Districts Act (CRS §§ 32-1-101 - 32-19-115), including but not limited to:

These regulations complement the various statutory frameworks for Special Districts, and are in addition to all applicable statutory requirements.

5. These Elbert County Special District regulations shall not apply to Homeowners Associations organized under CRS §38-33.3-101 et seq. (Colorado Common Interest Ownership Act) nor to Condominium Associations organized under CRS §38-33-101 et seq. (Colorado Condominium Ownership Act), except to the extent that those associations may be an element of a broader Special District application submitted.

6. These regulations describe in detail the application process leading up to the Board of County Commissioners deliberation of the Special District application, and what is expected of the Applicant. Once approved by the Board of County Commissioners, the approval is reviewed by the District Court and is subject to the organizational election as set forth in the applicable statutes under which the Special District is organized.

7. Once approved by the voters, and upon certification of the election by the court, the Special District may be organized for the purposes, and in the manner detailed in the Service Plan. Once the Special District is organized, material modifications to the Service Plan may be made by the governing body of such Special District only by petition to the Board of County Commissioners, following the same process as required for the approval of the original Service Plan.

8. Material modifications are changes of a basic or essential nature, including any addition to the types of services provided by the Special District, and shall not be required for changes required only for the execution of the original Service Plan, Meaning, or for changes in the boundaries of the Special District.

a) Material departures not so approved, can be enjoined by the court upon its own motion, or the motion of the Board of County Commissioners, municipal governing board, or “any interested party” as that term is defined in CRS §32-1-207(3)(a).

b) Any challenge to an action of a Special District as an unapproved material departure must be made within 45 days of the published notification by the Special District that it intends to undertake the activity, pursuant to the procedures set forth in CRS §32-1-207(3)(b) (Compliance – Modification - Enforcement).
