

Application for sponsorship for Sponsored Family Visitors

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

This form is for a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family and Tourist streams subclass 600

This form is for the sponsor of visitor visa applicants applying for a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream, and if you have been requested by the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) to be a sponsor for the Tourist stream.

A person coming to Australia as a sponsored family visitor will generally be able to stay in Australia for a period of up to 3 months. In certain circumstances the period may be longer, usually up to 6 months, but no more than 12 months.

Their visa, if granted, will generally only allow them to travel to Australia once on that visa.

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. Please be aware that if you provide us with fraudulent documents or claims, this may result in processing delays and possibly the application being refused.

Who can be a sponsor?

In all cases, the sponsor must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident aged 18 years or over and settled in Australia.

If you are sponsoring someone who is a family visitor you must be one of the following:

- a relative (parent, child, spouse, de facto partner, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew or 'step' equivalent of any of these); or
- a relative of a person who is a member of the family unit of the applicant and who is also applying for a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family or Tourist stream (such as the spouse of your sibling); or
- a member of an Australian parliament (Commonwealth, state or territory)¹; or
- an authorised person representing a Commonwealth, state or territory government agency or instrumentality¹; or
- a local government mayor¹.

If you have already provided a sponsorship for another visitor, you normally need to wait until their visa ceases to be in effect before you can be eligible to provide another sponsorship.

Who cannot sponsor?

There are no provisions for fiancés, cousins, friends or in-laws and New Zealand citizens to sponsor.

If you have previously sponsored a visitor as a sponsored visitor, and your visitor did not abide by the conditions of their visa, you will be ineligible to sponsor another visitor in the same visa class for 5 years. There is only one exception, see 'Conditions applying to Visitor visas – Sponsored Family stream'.

How to sponsor your visitor

If an application is being made for a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream:

- each of your visitors will need to complete a separate form 1418 Application for a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream or form 1419 internet.
- to make an application you should lodge form 1418 and this form 1149 at one of the processing centres in Australia according to your address at the time of lodgement.
- all Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream applications will be assessed and decided at one of the Sponsored Family Visitor visa processing centres (SFVPC) in:
 - Brisbane; or
 - Sydney CBD.
- sponsors who live in New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania or the ACT should lodge their forms by post or courier, directly with the SFVPC (NSW).
- sponsors who live in Queensland, Northern Territory, South Australia or Western Australia should lodge their forms by post or courier, directly with the SFVPC (QLD). More information is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/contacts/australia/processing-centres/sfvpc

Completed forms must be accompanied by the required Visa Application Charge or evidence that the charge has been paid.

Note: If the department has requested sponsorship in relation to a Visitor visa – Tourist stream, you will need to complete this form and lodge it directly with the processing office that has made the request.

Your sponsorship undertaking

The undertaking you must sign in the form states that you agree to accept all financial obligations to the Commonwealth incurred by the applicant arising out of the applicant's stay in Australia. You are responsible for compliance by the person you are sponsoring with all conditions under which that person is allowed to enter Australia.

Note: Holders of Visitor visas – Sponsored Family stream are not permitted to work in Australia.

What is the security bond?

As the sponsor of the visa applicant, you may be requested to arrange for the lodgement of a security bond. A security bond may be requested for each individual visa applicant, including any travelling family members of the relative included in your sponsorship. The amount of security bond is determined on a case by case basis by a delegated officer and is generally between AUD5,000 and AUD15,000 per person. It should be noted, however, under the Migration Act 1958 the decision to request a security bond is at the discretion of the delegated officer.

Therefore, depending on the circumstances of the individual case, the delegated officer may ask for a security bond of any amount that they see as appropriate. You will be informed in writing if a bond is requested. The request will include details of where the security should be lodged, the amount requested, and information relating to refund arrangements.

Note:

- A security bond can be provided by a third party who is not the sponsor, however, this person should be aged 18 years or older.
- Your sponsorship, and any security bond requested, does not guarantee the grant of any visa. Each Visitor visa applicant must meet all visa requirements individually. The sponsorship you provide in this form is only one of the criteria which must be met by the visa applicant for a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream.

What happens to the security bond?

The security bond will be refunded after the visitor you have sponsored has left Australia, provided they do not breach any visa conditions.

Conditions applying to Visitor visas – Sponsored Family stream

Visitors to Australia must comply with the conditions of their visa. As a sponsor, you are responsible for ensuring that your visitor(s) complies with their visa conditions.

Visitor visas granted to sponsored family visitors will require that your visitor:

- must not work in Australia (8101);
- must not engage, for more than 3 months, in any studies or training while in Australia (8201);
- cannot apply for a further stay in Australia² (8503);
- must not remain in Australia after the expiry of the period of stay of the visa on which they entered Australia (8531).

If a visitor you have sponsored breaches any visa conditions, it may lead to cancellation of their visa and other penalties, including being detained. If the visitor you have sponsored breaches any visa conditions, including if they do not depart before the expiry of the period of stay of their Visitor visa :

- you will be ineligible to sponsor another visitor for 5 years under the same visa class, unless you can satisfy the department that your sponsored visitor breached condition 8531 due to circumstances beyond their control and those circumstances arose after their arrival in Australia; and
- the security bond lodged to support your sponsored visitor will normally be forfeited.

If your visitor requests a waiver of the 8503 'No Further Stay' condition and this results in your visitor remaining in Australia after their Visitor visa expires, they will still be taken to have breached the 8531 'Must leave before visa expiry' condition, and you will still incur the penalties listed above, even if the 8503 is waived and a further visa is granted.

If you have any questions or concerns about the conditions, you should ask for more information from your nearest office of the department in Australia.

Visa validity

This visa generally allows stays of up to 3 months in Australia, although a stay of up to 12 months can be granted in certain circumstances.

Under Australia's migration regulations, decision-makers may grant a Visitor visa permitting the visa holder to travel to, and to remain in, Australia for a specified period that they see as appropriate. In some circumstances, the stay period granted may be less than the stay period requested.

What documents do you need?

Proof of your relationship to the applicant must be provided with this form. For example, if you are sponsoring your sibling, you should provide a certified copy of your full birth certificate, showing details of your parents. If you are also sponsoring your sibling's spouse, you should provide a certified copy of their marriage certificate.

If you have changed your name since birth (for example, through marriage), you should also provide evidence of this.

You will also need to provide evidence of your Australian citizenship or permanent residence status. If you are an Australian citizen you will need to provide a certified copy of your citizenship certificate or, if Australian-born, a certified copy of your full birth certificate. If you are an Australian permanent resident you will need to provide a copy of your permanent residence visa. If you are unsure about the documents needed please contact your nearest office of the department in Australia.

If you are providing copies of documents they will need to be certified as true copies of the original by a Justice of the Peace, Commissioner for Declarations or a person authorised to witness Statutory Declarations.

Communication with the sponsor of Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream

In order for this application to proceed, the visa applicant will need to authorise you, the sponsor, to receive all written communications about the visa application, and to act on behalf of the visa applicant. The department will communicate with you about the visa application and will send you any written communications relating to the visa application that would otherwise have been sent to the visa applicant. The visa applicant will be taken to have received any documents sent to you, the sponsor, as if they had been sent to the visa applicant. The exchange of information may include personal information. To authorise you to receive all communications about the application, your sponsored visitor will need to complete the sections with the headings Options for receiving written communications and Authorising sponsor in their application form 1418.

² Except in limited circumstances which are outside their control, or to engage Australia's protection obligations under the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Sponsors of applicants for Visitor visas are exempt from the requirements to be registered as a migration agent in order to assist applicants in relation to Visitor visas.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Office of the MARA website www.mara.gov.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.immi.gov.au

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Appointing a migration agent/exempt person

To appoint a migration agent/exempt person you should complete Question 21 Options for receiving written communications.

Your migration agent/exempt person should complete form 956 Advice by a migration agent/exempt person of providing immigration assistance.

Form 956 is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Options for receiving written communications

If you do not appoint a migration agent/exempt person you may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on your behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To appoint an authorised recipient you should complete:

- Question 21 Options for receiving written communications; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.

Sponsorship undertaking for a sponsored family visitor

WARNING: Giving false or misleading information is a serious offence.

- 22 I agree to accept responsibility for:
- all financial obligations to the Commonwealth incurred by those I am sponsoring arising out of the applicant's stay in Australia; and
 - unless the Minister decides otherwise, compliance by those I am sponsoring with the conditions under which they may be allowed to enter Australia.

I understand that the following visa conditions will be imposed on the visa:

- the visitor must not work in Australia;
- the visitor cannot apply for a further stay in Australia;¹
- the visitor must not remain in Australia after the expiry of the period of stay of the visa on which they enter Australia;
- the visitor must not engage, for more than 3 months, in any studies or training while in Australia.

I understand that any breach of the above visa conditions will prevent me from being approved as a sponsor for 5 years.²

¹ Except in limited circumstances which are outside their control, or to engage Australia's protection obligations under the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees.

² Except if the breach was of condition 8531 (must not remain in Australia after the expiry of the period of stay of the visa on which they entered Australia) and I can satisfy the department that my visitor breached this condition due to circumstances that:

- were beyond their control; and
- arose after their arrival in Australia.

Security bond and sponsorship limitation

23 I confirm that I will arrange for the lodgement of a security bond for each applicant I have sponsored if requested to do so.

I understand that any visa application(s) being lodged pursuant to this sponsorship may:

- be refused, regardless of my sponsorship;
- be refused, regardless of my sponsorship and any security bond I lodge;
- be approved on the basis of this sponsorship and any security bond lodged pursuant to this sponsorship.

I understand that the Minister must not approve this sponsorship:

- if I am already the sponsor for another person who holds a Sponsored (Visitor) (Class UL) visa or a Visitor (Class FA) visa (unless the new applicant is a member of the family unit of the previous applicant, and is travelling for the same purpose as the previous applicant); or
- if I have previously sponsored another applicant who held a Sponsored (Visitor) (Class UL) visa or a Visitor (Class FA) visa and that applicant did not comply with a condition of the visa, 5 years has not passed since that applicant was granted their visa and I am still subject to a 5 year bar.

I understand that:

- the security bond(s), if requested and lodged, may be forfeited should any visitor I support not comply with any of their visa conditions even if the 8503 'No Further Stay' condition is waived and a further visa is granted.
