- B. Write a brief statement of why you want to be a member of the Faribault's Future program.
- C. Briefly identify one current issue/topic facing our community that interests you.

TUITION

The tuition cost for the ten-month program is $695. Tuition covers all program costs, including materials, meals and transportation for the Business Day at the Capitol.

POLICIES

There are no refunds for the Faribault's Future program. No participants will be added after October 1. Once the class begins all participants have the right to complete the program regardless of their employment status. Employers are urged to clarify reimbursement and completion requirements for their employees.

SCHOLARSHIPS

A limited number of partial scholarships are available. If you need financial assistance, include a separate letter with this application requesting a partial scholarship and indicate why the scholarship is needed.

PAYMENT POLICY

If you are accepted into the leadership program, full tuition must be paid by September 1, 2015. Due to the limited number of participant slots available and the popularity of this program, class participation will be confirmed once payment has been received.

ATTENDANCE

Class attendance is essential for graduation. Should circumstances require that you miss the opening sessions, more than two regular class sessions, or be absent from portions of class on a regular basis, you will be required to meet with the Faribault's Future facilitators to determine appropriate make up provisions in order to graduate with your class. It is also required that each class member participate equally in their class project. Class members are also required to attend the Faribault Business EXPO/Community Showcase.

Faribault's Future class session generally run from 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. once a month September through June. Classes are tentatively scheduled for the second Thursday of each month.
