

Fisher School of Accounting
Request To Enroll in Summer Online Distance Sections of ACG 2021 or ACG 2071
for UF Students Away from Gainesville

During the summer semester, the Fisher School of Accounting permits students enrolled in on-campus degree programs to enroll in online distance sections of ACG 2021 or ACG 2071 (students take exams at home using ProctorU, which allows the students to be located anywhere in the country). Campus-based students who are in Gainesville are not permitted to register for these courses. To be considered for enrollment in an online, distance section during summer, you do not need to meet with an advisor, simply complete all of the following information:

1. Check here to verify that you meet the following requirements:

You must meet course prerequisites, have access to reliable high speed internet, and have a webcam.

2. COURSE REQUESTED: ACG 2021 Introduction to Financial Accounting (Summer A)
 ACG 2071 Introduction to Managerial Accounting (Summer B)

3. Provide the address where you will be located during the summer and a phone number where you can be contacted (not a cell phone number).

4. Describe the reason you will not be on-campus during the summer (internship, work, family reasons etc.)

I affirm that the above information is true and understand that it will be considered an honor code violation if the information provided above is not correct.
